...a Friday morning report on the Coin Market

FUN SHOW IN PROGRESS

PRECIOUS METALS BEGIN YEAR HIGHER

The Market in Depth

Early indications reveal that the rare coin market is getting off to a good start. Higher Gold and Silver prices following the New Year's Day holiday are certainly adding to this market's momentum. These higher values seen among the precious metals are good in that they tend to give the overall market a boost. Most dealers are beginning 2007 optimistically and this is being confirmed by the strong Bids offered for attractive coins that possess nice eye appeal in Orlando. The Stack's January 2 Orlando Sale is currently underway, with at least one disappointment already being reported. The finest known 1913 Liberty Head Nickel did not sell because the reserve wasn't met. This coin is a PCGS PR66 example that was formerly in the Eliasberg collection. It is the finest known of five pieces and it would not be a surprise if it eventually changes hands before the FUN show concludes. Dealers will now focus their attention on the next Orlando auction being conducted by Superior. Then, it is on to the Florida United Numismatists Show and FUN auction that will dominate the first week of January. The numismatic activity taking place in Florida should provide us with important insights into the new 2007 market.

Many dealers are out there right now actively evaluating their customers' needs and deciding what coins to buy to fulfill that need. Dealers are trying to anticipate the market and the degree of success that he or she derives from this quest can go a long way towards making their customers happy. Dealers also know that a happy customer is often a repeat customer and that is important to the bottom line.

Attractive Type coins remain in serious demand and are easy to move if priced anywhere near realistic levels. There are many collectors buying these coins and this is especially true for those 1- and 2-year Type coins. Early Type coins have demonstrated very strong demand throughout 2006 and that appears to be carrying over as we begin 2007. Other coins that are highly sought-after include: better date, "high end" Gold of all denominations; Proof Gold is especially needed in all denominations; early 20th century keys in demand include such rarities as the 1916-D Mercury Dime, 1916 Doubled Die and 1918/7-D Buffalo Nickels; 1916, 1918/7-S Standing Liberty Quarters; and the 1919-D and 1921-P,D,S Walking Liberty Half Dollars. Better date Morgan Dollars will be another challenging task for dealers as collectors look to upgrade their collections in 2007. Specialists tell us that Silver Commemoratives with strong eye appeal and amazing color are also a strong target as we begin the new year.

This Week's Market

MERCURY DIMES: Merces start the 2007 campaign where they left off with perhaps some additional momentum brewing. Collector demand may test the limited supplies as new buyers are appearing for selected rarities and Full Banded material.

WALKING LIBERTY HALVES: Walkers are still sluggish as a whole yet are getting the new year underway with a bit more solid footing. Bid has been pushed to $1,300 for the popular later key, 1938D in Gem. Higher Bids are also seen for a trio within the short-set restoring some visible buyer demand here.

DOLLARS: It's hard to keep this enormously popular series down for long and this issue reveals that Morgans haven't lost a step as several better New Orleans and San Francisco Mint coins are cornering most of the action. Peace Dollars display some subtle housekeeping as several Type coins roll back a bit yet this is more than offset by the tidy advances seen following the popular inaugural "High Relief" 1921 wanted at elevated levels in several Circ grades as well as solid increase targeting both the 1923S and 1925S in Very Choice as the latter claims $735.

PROOF SETS AND MINT SETS: Positive influence from the ever-popular 1936-1950 Proof issues has done little if anything to correct the buyer indifference that has plagued most later dated Proof Sets. Mint Sets though quiet, win the battle here through default, as no losses are reported.

COMMEMORATIVES: Buyers for the 11-piece Classic Gold contingent appear to be still on holiday yet the Silver Commem conclave seems to have rounded the corner as dealer involvement is beginning to return here as the propensity of demand is following many in Gem and better. Please note that the tough to find properly graded, 1935 Spanish Trail is blazing a path to higher levels as MS66 specimens command $1,980.

TYPE: No January white sales here! On the contrary the early new year finds Type as strong as ever as we observe early Copper remaining hot with Large Cents in high grade continuing to escalate as well as a solid advance targeting the underrated 1854-55 Liberty Seated Halves with Arrows powering to $2,200 in MS64. Proof Type heralds in 2007 on a strong note too, as sundry Liberty Seated denominations rival attention from several buyers led by the popular Seated Dollars with Motto capturing a $4,750 Bid in PR64.

GOLD: As Gold Spot climbs higher additional buyer support may indeed be at hand. This positive action once again translates to even higher Bids being placed for the majority of Gold Type coins in Choice and better. Yet once again we observe that the spreads between the prevailing Gold Spot and Circ $20 Libs and Saints remain remarkably tantalizing.

The weekly COIN DEALER newsletter (the Greysheet) reports the national Dealer-to-Dealer wholesale coin market, monitoring all possible transactions and offers to buy and sell coins sight-seen. The coins may be certified or "raw" (uncertified), but the grading MUST ADHERE to the current leading standard. Prices reported derive from the highest legitimate Bids and lowest legitimate Asks seen nationally; they do not necessarily reflect the levels at which any particular dealer might offer to buy or sell that coin. Bids reported consider activity in the certified sight-unseen market, which already include consideration of certification costs. Bids for a sight-seen "raw" coin may be higher or lower than for a sight-unseen certified coin due to current market conditions. The CDN may not change Bid due to the bidding adjustments of the high bidder, but will be strongly influenced by Buys which are higher or Sells which are lower than current Bid/Ask levels. INVESTOR/COLLECTOR NOTE: The prices in this newsletter are from Dealer-to-Dealer transactions; you should expect to pay a premium above Ask when purchasing coins in a retail transaction; you may also commission a Dealer for your purchases.

The Bid prices listed within represent what individual dealers are willing to pay for coins that meet their particular grading criteria. Coins graded by other dealers or grading services, such as PCGS, NCI, ANACS, NGC, and any other services may not conform to the grading standards as interpreted by the dealer or dealers whose bid is represented within. Therefore, a specific coin could be worth more or less than the listed Bid price. AUCTIONS HAMMER $85 MILLION IN FLORIDA

BEST SHOW EVER FOR SOME

The Market in Depth

Many dealers are still amazed at the total dollar amount sold at auction along with the volume of business that took place on the bourse last week in Florida. Some of them said that it was the best coin show that they've ever had while others were not as successful. Still, for those few dealers making such bold, positive statements is saying a lot because this market has already seen several extremely good years. Results of the FUN show often serve as an indicator as to how well the future market will perform and many have come away believing that 2007 could be an amazing year.

Collector coins in affordable condition took center stage in Florida and are among those areas realizing the strongest Bids. Incredible demand for material that combines attractiveness, originality and rarity has become increasingly evident. Dealers were actively scouring the bourse floor looking to buy all they could find if the price was right. They know that they have ready customers just waiting to buy a neat example or two, and so the stakes are high. Naturally those dealers that brought this material with them to sell were on the receiving end of strong Bids. Early Bust Type, attractive early Gold and original rare date Gold and other solid collector coins were those that fared the best. Additional evidence of this demand came from the Heritage FUN auctions held January 3-6 that finished with nearly $75.5 million sold; a world record that included 2 coins surpassing the $1 million threshold. A PCGS PR68 1907 Ultra High Relief $20 Saint-Gaudens sold for $1.84 million and an NGC PR67 1839/8 $10 Liberty, Type of 1838, Ultra Cameo claimed $1.61 million. These results come on the heels of a combined $9.5 million realized at the Stack's and Superior sales January 2-3.

Several astute dealers were a bit nervous prior to the Orlando auctions. They were concerned that such a huge number of quality rare coin lots thrust on the market at once might be too much for the market to absorb and actually drive prices down. It's true that some coins of lesser quality sold at softer levels but most of those that have the pizzazz that today's demand is chasing sold for phenomenal levels. No doubt these auction totals are amazing and so January 2007 is off with a bang as the strong demand for rare coins continues unabated despite those still expecting profit taking to begin. So as long as new collectors, and those existing collectors are willing to participate in the market at these levels then prices are poised to go even higher. Of course many variables will continually be factored into this demand equation but it looks as if there's enough present demand to sustain itself, and maybe even push higher.

The weekly COIN DEALER newsletter (the Greysheet) reports the national Dealer-to-Dealer wholesale coin market, monitoring all possible transactions and offers to buy and sell coins sight-seen. The coins may be certified or "raw" (uncertified), but the grading MUST ADHERE to the current leading standard. Prices reported derive from the highest legitimate Bids and lowest legitimate Asks seen nationally; they do not necessarily reflect the levels at which any particular dealer might offer to buy or sell that coin. Bids reported consider activity in the certified sight-unseen market, which already include consideration of certification costs. Bids for a sight-seen "raw" coin may be higher or lower than for a sight-unseen certified coin due to current market conditions. The CDN may not change Bid due to the bidding adjustments of the high bidder, but will be strongly influenced by Buys which are higher or Sells which are lower than current Bid/Ask levels. INVESTOR/COLLECTOR NOTE: The prices in this newsletter are from Dealer-to-Dealer transactions; you should expect to pay a premium above Ask when purchasing coins in a retail transaction; you may also commission a Dealer for your purchases.

This Week's Market

CENTS THRU HALVES: Early Copper remains red hot this winter as Lincoln rolls thru 1942 are a blaze with advances. Many early Jeffersons chime in as do the majority of Proof Kennedy rolls from 1971S-1982S.

MERCURY DIMES: Ms Winged Liberty continues to transcend stability, desirability and ongoing collector appeal. With a proclivity to secure many of the key dates, dealers are keeping up appearances as the majority of keys and rarities have visible support across-the-board.

WALKING LIBERTY HALVES: The key early date Walkers have always been the driving force behind this beautifully executed series as the middle dates currently strive to redeem their collective identity. Limited action appears to still be pursuing members of the short-set as the scarcer 1942S and popular 1946 Philly each move up in Gem.

DOLLARS: Much generic material is still available here and as dealers look to pay the auction piper after a resource depleting run of sales at FUN. Now it's not surprising to see generic Morgans languishing a bit as Bid drops back to $120 in MS65. Collector coins and keys are still in good shape as are the bedazzling DMPLS. Peace Dollars are heard making the most noise amongst buyers as higher Bids are recorded for the 1923D and 1926S in Gem at $910 and $830 respectively.

PROOF SETS AND MINT SETS: Both Proof and Mint Sets are still an extremely popular venue not only for old time collectors but for new hobbyists as well. Perhaps now as both whet their numismatic appetites here, we may be getting back on track a bit as we note modest support at present levels and no dissenters as the 1999S Silver Proof Set tops $270.

COMMEMORATIVES: Although heated action hasn't been spotted here this winter, several buyers are attempting to ignite the pilot light as they hunt for quantities of several popular entries in Gem and better. Eagerly sought are those that embody the proud frontier spirit like the Oregon Trail and California Jubilee as well as the tumultuous Civil War themed Antietam and Gettysburg entries each wanted in volume. The tougher Booker T. Washington and Washington-Carver Sets remain coveted too, as renewed interest is still chasing many of them at increased levels in Choice and Very Choice. Unfortunately the Classic Gold counterparts remain a virtual Bidder's wasteland as the 1903 Jefferson/La. Purchase rolls back a bit further in MS64.

TYPE: Early Type spanning just about all series remains a major concern for buyers as choice original eye appealing material whether it is in middle Circ grades or eye-popping registry examples remains a hard find. Even though thousands of lots were offered at various Florida sales and on the bourse many dealers battling for bragging rights and inventory have still come away short.

GOLD: Little by little over the past several weeks a base of support has been gradually building around better Gold Type coins in Choice and better. Now as the yellow metal has retreated nearly $30 an ounce since our last report we find the obligatory casualties for the bullion sensitive material.

The Bid prices listed within represent what individual dealers are willing to pay for coins that meet their particular grading criteria. Coins graded by other dealers or grading services, such as PCGS, NCI, ANACS, NGC, and any other services may not conform to the grading standards as interpreted by the dealer or dealers whose bid is represented within. Therefore a specific coin could be worth more or less than the listed Bid price. For listed Bid prices of coins certified by ANACS, NCI, PCGS, and NGC please refer to the Certified Coin Dealer newsletter.

BU ROLLS

The following prices are for typical rolls of the dates involved. In the Lincoln series, spotted or otherwise inferior rolls are worth less than listed prices and "gem" rolls often bring more. In the Jefferson series, some of the rolls in the late 50's tend to be dark—these bring lower prices; "gem, full steps" rolls (when available) bring higher prices. In the Mercury series, "gem, full bands" rolls are worth more than listed prices—particularly the pre-1941 issues. Washington rolls—doll or "put together" bring lower prices. Gem full stars Walking Liberty rolls (particularly the S-mint issues) are worth more than listed prices. MS-65 singles may be found in the MONTHLY SUPPLEMENT. Mercury & Walker singles are in the CDN.

The Market in Depth

Dealers are back home after a very hectic Florida trip that produced a lot of activity and information about the coin market. Most of those in attendance said that the Florida United Numismatist show was pleasantly surprising. Therefore it has put a lot of dealers at ease because of its bullish activity. Now back home, they are trying to process their results so that they can establish some direction and course of action for themselves and their customers going forward. It's true that many dealers began the year with high anxiety, not knowing if their purchases would end up being near the market top. Some are wondering where all the money is coming from to support many of today's rare coins that are trading at record levels. Several scenarios are milling about without any clear cut evidence pointing to a single cause. It is not the same as seen in past bull markets when it was well known where the new money was coming from. Everyone seemed to know who the major collectors were out there building sets or when wall-street began buying up material. One dealer said recently that he watched low-pop, high Mint State Liberty Seated Quarter and Half Dollar rarities sell at record levels. He now wonders who is collecting these keys by date and grade and why doesn't he know who they are. Some dealers are even speculating that today's buyer may even be a "secret fund" or two. However we have seen little proof of that notion. Another belief may be due to our American dollar, that has been loosing value compared to other currencies. So, even though we think that our rare coins have jumped in value tremendously they are still considered reasonably priced to some foreign investors. Yet there is not enough proof there either. Many collectors and investors have been quite successful in the 2006 stock market while most agree that the real estate market has slowed and so maybe some of this money is now entering rare coins. Increased volatility in both Gold and Silver has steered new buyers towards numismatics. It could just be a "broadening" of the demand side of the market because of many having greater access to coins thru the Internet. Add to this the increased production and advertising blitz by the U.S. Mint and it is easy to see why the collector base might be rapidly expanding. Regardless of why the demand is so strong it is obvious that there is an amply supply of funds targeting these coins in January 2007, and consequently an increasing number of coins hitting the market.

Stack's January 11 American Numismatic Society Collection auction of 101 die duplicates realized nearly $720,000 in New York. Top coin was an MS64 $50 1915-S Pan-Pac Commem, Round that claimed $89,125.

This Week's Market

MERCURY DIMES: Mercs are certainly still a collector's favorite yet even this popular series has not been unscathed by some minor discounting. Overall this ensemble still maintains a solid base of buyer bias as the demand for most scarce and rare entries is unrelenting.

WALKING LIBERTY HALVES: A pair of the Walkers' perennial all stars are seen taking center stage as buyers are digging deep attempting to secure the formidable 1921 and 1921D duo in multiple Mint State grades. Please note that some potential bargains may exist here as several scarce early entries are seen retreating including the tough 1917D and S (Reverse) issues each rolling back in MS64.

DOLLARS: DMPLs take the spotlight as over 2 dozen of these deep-mirrored marvels are reflecting tidy advances. As dealer deference remains on high alert in these quarters the same can't be said for the majority of generic Morgans in Choice through Gem as they still attempt to stabilize. Peace Dollars though quiet, boast considerable buyer empathy at present in Very Choice and better.

PROOF SETS AND MINT SETS: Proof Sets are revealing a bit more action as a trio are moving higher, with the 2006 American Legacy Set now claiming $140. Most Mint Sets on the other hand are still in hibernation searching for active buyers.

COMMEMORATIVES: Classic Silver Commems remain a very popular area for many collectors. Now as several dealers look to generate some quick cash we spot many more rolling back in sundry Mint State grades. Classic Gold on the other hand remains comatose and is in desperate need of some positive reinforcement as a trio reports in with moderate setbacks. Modern Mint State Gold Commemoratives remain active with increases in place for most better issues. 20th Anniversary American Eagle 3-piece Sets, both Gold and Silver are moving higher with buyers continuing to pay a slight premium for unopened boxes.

TYPE: For most dealers, inventorying suitable Type remains an unfulfilled mission of acquisition. Now as many prepare for the upcoming western show trek the call for most early Bust Type denominations rages on. As the collector base continues to grow dealers will be pounding the pavement not only for eye appealing wonder coins but for attractive Circ examples as well.

GOLD: As Gold Spot maintains its presence in the $620 neighborhood we of course note the obligatory increases for the more bullion dependent issues. Better Gold Type such as the popular $10 Indian, entertains us with a triple Bid advance in Choice through Gem as the latter reports in at $4,460.

The weekly COIN DEALER newsletter (the Greysheet) reports the national Dealer-to-Dealer wholesale coin market, monitoring all possible transactions and offers to buy and sell coins sight-seen. The coins may be certified or "raw" (uncertified), but the grading MUST ADHERE to the current leading standard. Prices reported derive from the highest legitimate Bids and lowest legitimate Asks seen nationally; they do not necessarily reflect the levels at which any particular dealer might offer to buy or sell that coin. Bids reported consider activity in the certified sight-unseen market, which already include consideration of certification costs. Bids for a sight-seen "raw" coin may be higher or lower than for a sight-unseen certified coin due to current market conditions. The CDN may not change Bid due to the bidding adjustments of the high bidder, but will be strongly influenced by Buys which are higher or Sells which are lower than current Bid/Ask levels. INVESTOR/COLLECTOR NOTE: The prices in this newsletter are from Dealer-to-Dealer transactions; you should expect to pay a premium above Ask when purchasing coins in a retail transaction; you may also commission a Dealer for your purchases.

The Bid prices listed within represent what individual dealers are willing to pay for coins that meet their particular grading criteria. Coins graded by other dealers or grading services, such as PCG5, NCI, ANACS, NGC and any other services may not conform to the grading standards as interpreted by the dealer or dealers whose bid is represented within. Therefore, a specific coin could be worth more or less than the listed Bid price. For listed Bid prices of coins certified by ANACS, NCI, PCGS, and NGC please refer to the Certified Coin Dealer newsletter.

	BID	ASK	BID	ASK	BID	ASK	BID	ASK	BID	ASK	BID	ASK	Numbers are used as shorthand for adjectival grading. The following descriptions are used throughout the CDN to designate the exact quality of Brilliant Uncirculated coins. Grade descriptions do not necessarily apply to modern government issues because they are handled more carefully when minted; therefore, they are all usually high grades.
1986	15.00	16.00	70.00	74.00	161.50 -	166.50	355.00	375.00	638.00 -	648.00	~ ~ ~	~ ~ ~	MS60-Unc: May not have full mint lustre, may be dull, toned or spotted. May be the worst possible example, shows no wear or damage. Will be bagmarked and/or weakly struck.	MS63-Choice BU: Brilliant Unc. (may exhibit some toning, but it should not be so dark as to hide any problems); will have minor bagmarks and may show weakness of strike. Above average coins.

Few Contact marks in field, only minor marks on main devices. Full strike, with eye-appeal. Attractive toning permissible.	MS65-Gem BU: Sharp, full strike, full lustre. NO major distractions in field or on main devices. Attractive toning permissible. A very tiny percentage of available BU coins make this no-question grade. Must have eye-appeal.

"I could not be happier with the auction results, which I consider to be nothing short of spectacular." – Allan Mandelstamm

At Superior Galleries, we believe that service and results should be guaranteed. While any dealer or auctioneer can provide an "estimate" of value for your coins, only Superior Galleries of Beverly Hills guarantees its estimates, and guarantees your results.

The Superior guarantee is simple: When you consign with Superior Galleries of Beverly Hills, we will tell you exactly what your coins will sell for, and we will back up our evaluation with a simple, rock solid, written guarantee that you will achieve the results that we promise, or more.

If you are considering the sale of some or all of your rare coins, call Superior Galleries of Beverly Hills today. You will get Superior Results...guaranteed.

NGC VarietyPlus®

Accurate Variety Attribution

NGC meets your complete needs for expert variety attribution. VarietyPlus® provides a broader range of varieties and attributions, the culmination of years of exclusive NGC research. NGC recognizes these varieties:

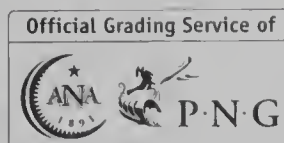

- Die varieties by VP number
- Half cents by Cohen numbers
- Large cents by Sheldon (1793-1814) and Newcomb (1816-57) numbers
- Half dimes (1794-1837) by Logan-McCloskey numbers
- Dimes (1796-1837) by John Reich numbers
- Quarter dollars (1796-1838) by Browning numbers
- Half dollars (1794-1836) by Overton numbers
- Silver dollars (1794-1804) by Bowers-Borckardt and Bolender numbers

To receive a variety of attribution with your grading submission to NGC, just add $7 per coin. For coins already encapsulated by NGC, the variety attribution can be added under our Designation Review service at $10 per coin.

Call 800-NGC-COIN or visit www.NGCcoin.com.

...a Friday morning report on the Coin Market

RARE COIN DEMAND REMAINS STRONG

EXONUMIA REALIZES TOP DOLLAR

The Market in Depth

January is nearly history and many dealers seem reasonably pleased with the activity that has already transpired. The Florida United Numismatists Show and auctions in early January set the tone as they were power-packed and replete with rarities. This afforded many a serious collector the unusual opportunity to Bid for coins that don't appear that often. This culminated in an incredible dollar amount of transactions taking place. Dealers are still amazed with the exceptionally high price levels realized as they ponder their immediate, and future strategies. Most were expecting a slow period after FUN as auction bills would be weighing on the market. However we hear that strong demand continues to be the rule today as collectors are willing to add some nice coins to their collections at strong prices. So dealers continue to be busy and this is very encouraging as they envision an even brighter 2007 market. They are also receiving an extra boost from the precious metals that have bolted out of the gates in 2007 as well. Increasing metal prices are just the ticket to keep the demand side of the equation firing on all cylinders. Bullion buyers inevitably are enticed by old coins that have a more numismatic value. Once their introduction to rare coins is complete a new collector emerges and the client base expands. Dealers are witnessing firsthand this expansive collector growth. They know that among the many variables that contribute to its growth, accessibility to the Internet is high on the list. High resolution images of coins can now be viewed at different degrees of lighting and magnification. Collectors feel comfortable pursuing the inventories of many dealers as well as auction lots this way and enjoy shopping from the security and comfort of their homes.

Any surprises? Yes, the diverse nature of today's demand for coins is what has been so unusual. Collectors are intrigued by Colonial coins, Private and Territorial Gold coins, Patterns and Medals. That's why "big bucks" are being spent for select pieces. Of course the strong demand for early Flowing Hair and Bust coinage, not to mention all key and semi-key dates of regular series continues unabated. Demand for modern coinage is also growing, even as collectors are bombarded with new issues. All of this interest bodes well for any bull market because it creates an extraordinarily wide base of support. And as we all know, it will take this strong support to maintain the high levels.

Stack's Americana Sale realized nearly $5.2 million in New York. We listed a few of the many highlights from that January 16-17 auction.

This Week's Market

CENTS THRU HALVES: Jefferson rolls continue to generate action as over a dozen early entries are riding higher Bids. Select Washington Quarters from the 40s and early 50s are also on the move as are many Franklin rolls.

MERCURY DIMES: This confidant for many buyers still maintains an appreciative audience, clamoring for appealing scarcer issues and top quality Full Banded material at or near Bid.

WALKING LIBERTY HALVES: The good news for devotees of this series is that no further discounting is apparent in this report. Perhaps quiet resolve may be returning here instead as the key to the short-set 1941S, is a hot ticket rising to $775 in Gem as multiple examples of this popular late date Walker are wanted immediately.

DOLLARS: Morgans are certainly not a ball of fire this week yet the generic and rare offerings are for the most part holding on at or near current levels. We do spy a pair of scarcer and popular San Francisco entries also courting immediate need as the 1885S and 1899S are elevated in Gem at $1,250 and $1,350 respectively. Demand for most Peace Dollars is still sturdy in Choice and better, yet high-grade Type fell back a bit as MS66 examples are now Bid $550.

PROOF SETS AND MINT SETS: With only a pair of Proof Sets wearing modest gains, both Proof and Mint Sets are eagerly looking for interest to resume. One dealer is certainly doing his part as he is looking to buy upwards of 200 sets of each Proof issue from 1971-1992 at slightly behind Bid. With several of these Sets currently Bid less than $5 they certainly seem to have some upside potential.

COMMEMORATIVES: Classic Silver Commems have the upper hand here as far as dealers are concerned with many in Gem or better yet to be placed in to anxious homes. Classic Gold though boasting many low mintages reveals that many were well-preserved and are available in high grade. Dealers have been willing to let members of the 11-piece ensemble sell at even lower levels knowing all to well that replacements, when needed will be available. Yet with some prices down for MS64 and better examples by over 20% since 9/22/06 perhaps now will be a fortuitous opportunity for some perceptive buyers.

TYPE: Type remains a diversified battlefield for dealers as they attempt to round-up fresh and original material for customers and inventory. Several Silver Dollars are on the move as the classic Liberty Seated no Motto drive to $20K in MS65 and Proof with Motto Dollars feel the heat in PR60 and PR63 as the latter muscles to $2,700. Trade Dollars are also popular with buyers as MS60 examples trek to $700.

GOLD: Irrespective of Gold Spot's recent tribulations, better Gold Type has been quietly bouncing back with sturdy demand in place for many in Choice and better. Those on the mend are strengthened further by a flurry of plus signs landing on better Gold Type in MS63 and better.

The weekly COIN DEALER newsletter (the Greysheet) reports the national Dealer-to-Dealer wholesale coin market, monitoring all possible transactions and offers to buy and sell coins sight-seen. The coins may be certified or "raw" (uncertified), but the grading MUST ADHERE to the current leading standard. Prices reported derive from the highest legitimate Bids and lowest legitimate Asks seen nationally; they do not necessarily reflect the levels at which any particular dealer might offer to buy or sell that coin. Bids reported consider activity in the certified sight-unseen market, which already include consideration of certification costs. Bids for a sight-seen "raw" coin may be higher or lower than for a sight-unseen certified coin due to current market conditions. The CDN may not change Bid due to the bidding adjustments of the high bidder, but will be strongly influenced by Buys which are higher or Sells which are lower than current Bid/Ask levels. INVESTOR/COLLECTOR NOTE: The prices in this newsletter are from Dealer-to-Dealer transactions; you should expect to pay a premium above Ask when purchasing coins in a retail transaction; you may also commission a Dealer for your purchases.

COMMEMORATIVES

The Bid prices listed within represent what individual dealers are willing to pay for coins that meet their particular grading criteria. Coins graded by other dealers or grading services, such as PCGS, NCI, ANACS, NGC, and any other services may not conform to the grading standards as interpreted by the dealer or dealers whose bid is represented within. Therefore, a specific coin could be worth more or less than the listed Bid price. For Bid prices of coins certified by ANACS, NCI, PCGS, and NGC, please refer to the Certified Coin Dealer newsletter.

BU ROLLS

The following prices are for typical rolls of the dates involved. In the Lincoln series, spotted or otherwise interior rolls are worth less than listed prices and "gem" rolls often bring more. In the Jefferson series, some of the rolls in the late 50's tend to be dark—these bring lower prices; "gem, full steps" rolls (when available) bring higher prices. In the Mercury series, "gem, full bands" rolls are worth more than listed prices—particularly the pre-1941 issues. Washington rolls—dull or "put together" bring lower prices. Gem full strike Walking Liberty rolls (particularly the S-mint issues) are worth more than listed prices. MS-65 singles may be found in the MONTHLY SUPPLEMENT. Mercury & Walker singles are in the CDN

Do You Have the 2007 Commemorative Graph Books?

CDN Graph Books- Updated for 2007

The CDN Graph Books are the only source for historic pricing data. Knowing the all-time high, the historic low and the current value are crucial when making Buying or Selling decisions.

Every serious numismatist will treasure the entire CDN Graph Book series.

SILVER COMMEMORATIVE 1980-2006/07
Graphs cover Bid levels for the classic Silver Commems listed on page 2 in the weekly CDN, in grades: XF, AU, MS60, MS63, MS64, MS65 & MS66.

GOLD COMMEMORATIVE 1980-2006/07
Graphs cover all Gold Commems as listed on page 2 of the weekly CDN, in grades: XF, AU, MS60, MS63, MS64, MS65 & MS66.

KEY DATES & RARITIES IN HOT DEMAND

TRIO OF PRE-LONG BEACH SALES ON DECK

The Market in Depth

Dealers have had little time to rest following the hectic pace of January's coin shows and auctions. Those dealers in attendance at the Jan 26-28 Money Show of the Southwest said there was plenty of activity, although not to the degree that was experienced in Florida. Still, the trading was steady and transactions were readily taking place for the coins that are realizing today's greatest demand. Key dates and rarities seemed to be the cry that resonated with most dealers. These are the coins that still find themselves in short supply as February begins. Buyers are actively trying to buy this material for their customers and some were able to do so as long as they were willing to spend some money. Those dealers that were in possession of these select dates in problem-free condition were asking very strong money. Those neat coins or those that have an exceptional degree of eye appeal and/or color were also among the hottest properties on the bourse. Prospective buyers, while not happy about the price tag, were still willing to pay these huge amounts because it is just so difficult to find fresh material today. Most understood that if you pass you might not have a second chance. One astute dealer said that there still seems to be a lot of cash around but simply not enough coins to complete all the potential transactions. Everyone continues to focus on the rarities but should they be looking elsewhere?

February is shaping up to be another potentially active month as well with several auction companies already scheduled to hit the west coast with a bang. These auctions are all centered

Auction	Date	Denomination	Grade
B&M	1798/7	Draped Bust Dime, 16 Stars	NGC MS66
B&M	1828	Capped Bust Quarter	NGC PR66
Superior	1795	Flowing Hair Half Dollar	PCGS MS61

on the powerful Feb. 15-17 Long Beach Expo. This is the first Expo of the new year and is usually one of the more active shows (of the three). Beverly Hills, California will be the venue for three Pre-Long Beach Sales. Bowers and Merena will host their Rarities Sale on Feb 10. February 11-13 will feature Ira & Larry Goldberg and their Pre-Long Beach sale while Superior will conduct their Elite Coin Auction.

This Week's Market

MERCURY DIMES: Demand is heating up for volumes of common Full Banded specimens as Gem FB Mercs are on the rise to $39. Leading this modest yet broad-based surge of most later dated material we find the popular 1945 "Micro S" climbing to $545 in MS65FB .

WALKING LIBERTY HALVES: Walkers remain a moody lot this winter season. As a handful of better dates including some early scarcities reflect buyer malaise we note various Gem Mint State examples pulling back a bit further.

DOLLARS: With over a dozen of the desirable DMPLs on the move, buyers are on the prowl searching for pleasing examples of these rare dazzlers. Most generic Morgans in Gem are also enjoying solid demand with multiple buyers at or near Bid. Yet perhaps due to mounting auction bills and the need for immediate liquidity several better dates and many commoners in MS63-64 are seen surrendering territory as dealers look to generate some quick cash. Peace Dollars though quiet offer loud support at current levels with the accent on Very Choice and Gem examples as the scarce 1925S claims $770 in MS64.

PROOF SETS AND MINT SETS: Early Proof Sets are always welcome guests ushered in to most dealers' inventories with waiting arms whereas most later entries are left standing at the door. Yet as most modern issues remain at a virtual standstill, we do observe demand for the popular 1999S Silver Proof Set now climbing to $285 Bid with one buyer seeking up to 50 Sets at this level. Mint Sets report stability as no losses are seen and a pair are moving higher.

COMMEMORATIVES: Classic Silver Commems maintain an exceedingly favorable following as most collectors have this highly regarded and popular series front and center on their want lists. Yet as dealers scurry to secure a varied and vibrant inventory we note that support is drying up for many here. One area still under siege finds sundry Booker T. Washington and Washington-Carver Sets on the move with several of these scarcer and potentially undervalued issues advancing in Choice and better American Eagle 3-piece Anniversary Sets, both Gold and Silver remain hot.

TYPE: Type continues to be a mad race for most dealers as they attempt to flag down quality entry-level examples as well as top-notch registry caliber specimens. With plus signs sprinkled throughout we see that early Copper remains coveted as the rare Liberty Cap Large Cents climb in Very Choice and better. The popular Two Cent pieces are also heard from as they muscle to $1,300 for MS65 Red examples. Proof Type caters to action too, as the one year Type 1883 N/C Liberty Nickels receive a solid push to $900 in PR65.

GOLD: As Gold's current demand drives Spot higher we are perhaps observing a newer audience emerging to take a look here. Certainly as the necessary upward adjustments land on the majority below, the tight spreads between the prevailing Spot market and Circ Eagles and Double Eagles remain very appealing and opportunistic. Better Gold Type is also saturated with advances as the $3 Princess makes a return to the plus side as MS64 examples claim $7,200.

The weekly COIN DEALER newsletter (the Greysheet) reports the national Dealer-to-Dealer wholesale coin market, monitoring all possible transactions and offers to buy and sell coins sight-seen. The coins may be certified or "raw" (uncertified), but the grading MUST ADHERE to the current leading standard. Prices reported derive from the highest legitimate Bids and lowest legitimate Asks seen nationally; they do not necessarily reflect the levels at which any particular dealer might offer to buy or sell that coin. Bids reported consider activity in the certified sight-unseen market, which already include consideration of certification costs. Bids for a sight-seen "raw" coin may be higher or lower than for a sight-unseen certified coin due to current market conditions. The CDN may not change Bid due to the bidding adjustments of the high bidder, but will be strongly influenced by Buys which are higher or Sells which are lower than current Bid/Ask levels. INVESTOR/COLLECTOR NOTE: The prices in this newsletter are from Dealer-to-Dealer transactions; you should expect to pay a premium above Ask when purchasing coins in a retail transaction; you may also commission a Dealer for your purchases.

SILVER COMMEMORATIVES

The Bid prices listed within represent what individual dealers are willing to pay for coins that meet their particular grading criteria. Coins graded by other dealers or grading services, such as PCGS, NCI, ANACS, NGC, and any other services may not conform to the grading standards as interpreted by the dealer or dealers whose bid is represented within. Therefore, a specific coin could be worth more or less than the listed Bid price. For the Bid prices of coins certified by ANACS, NCI, PCGS, and NGC please refer to the Certified Coin Dealer newsletter.

When the Question is
the Answer is
SPECTRUM!

The clients of Spectrum Numismatics had another record year in 2006. They continue to receive those Spectrum funds at an all-time record rate and you better not miss out. What do our clients tell us about why they come to Spectrum?

Our clients want to avoid making a major mistake. They don't want to get ripped off. They don't want to be intimidated. They don't want an embarrassing situation. In fact, many of them fear that their coins aren't good enough (or interesting enough) for a "big company" so they'll take the easy route and go to a local coin shop and dump them for 20 cents on the dollar.

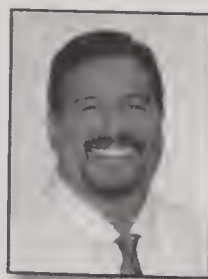

WHY SPECTRUM?

Our needs are so diverse and our buying interests are so extensive that we've purchased single coins for under $1 and for over $2,000,000. Why are customers bringing us coins in record numbers? Because they know they're dealing with world-class rare coin experts with unlimited financial resources. Because they know they'll be treated fairly and courteously. Because they know we have other customers waiting for their coins in all ranges of the price spectrum. Because they know they'll always receive same-day payment. Collectors, investors, dealers, and financial institutions alike know the Spectrum secret, and now so do you. If you're interested in selling 1 coin or 1000 coins, why would you want to go anywhere else?

Dealing with Spectrum is always as fast, confidential and convenient as you need it to be. We can travel to see you, meet you at our offices, at a location of your choice, or make an appointment with you for the next coin show in your area. We can also do the entire transaction by mail as we do thousands of times each year.

Spectrum has a commitment to customer satisfaction that is unsurpassed in the rare coin industry. Let us help you realize the most money for your coins. Give us an opportunity to serve you.

Call us toll-free at 888.828.2646. Do it today!

IS THE MARKET READY FOR A PAUSE?

SELECTIVITY ON THE RISE

The Market in Depth

Several dealers believe that the market has scaled back its exuberance that was readily apparent during January 2006. Back then, strong demand for coins, especially key dates was the rage. Optimism was overflowing as many believed the 2006 market would continue at the terrific pace that was established in prior years. Things have changed somewhat as we begin 2007. Dealers suggest that they don't see desperation buying and incredible price jumps that were in evidence earlier in the bull market's run. Stabilization is how one dealer best described the current activity taking place. It is a market where things aren't going crazy but there is certainly a lot of business taking place, both on the bourse at shows and in public auctions. Still, they don't anticipate prices to be moving radically up or down and they believe that this consolidation period is necessary and healthy. Several key dates have moved unbelievably higher and many feel that the precipitous move may be somewhat overdone. Don't miss understand, there is still very strong demand for keys but some popular issues such as 1893-S, 1889-CC and 1895-O Morgan Dollars; 1916 Standing Liberty Quarters and 1916-D Mercury Dimes that have all increased quite considerably may be ready for a correction period. For example, dealers tell us that trying to sell an 1893-S or 1889-CC at current levels is becoming more difficult. Collectors are very much interested in buying the key dates for their collections but they also recognize the levels being asked. It is these higher levels that are keeping some of these collectors' funds on the sidelines. Keep in mind that this is an entirely healthy condition for the market and one that will only add to its demand. As long as these collectors stay interested and willing to buy other, more attractively priced areas of the market, its support will be the foundation necessary to propel Bids further. Generic coins have also been a part of the stabilization that defines this market. Morgan Dollars and other generic 20th century material have been rather lackluster. This is also true for Mint State Type Gold. Spot Gold has increased very nicely these past few weeks and is now trading above $650 per ounce, yet this push hasn't realized the same excitement and power that we witnessed during last year's charge. Approximately 6 months ago, August 11, 2006 Gold closed at $647.80 and many generic Mint State Gold issues were considerably higher than they are today. It may just be a case where today's knowledgeable collector is becoming more selective in response to the higher levels. That may be the strategy pursued at the pre-Long Beach auctions beginning February 10 in Beverly Hills and culminating February 17 at the Expo.

This Week's Market

CENTS THRU HALVES: Copper continues to sizzle as many Lincoln rolls from the 30's and 40's attract higher Bids. Bullion sensitive rolls flutter higher on the coattails of a surging Silver Spot. State Quarters are also getting a boost as several are on the move led by the sizable 36% increase for the popular 2002P Tennessee rolls.

MERCURY DIMES: Multiple buyers are continuing to pursue Ms. Winged Liberty and following last week's lead. Full Banded specimens remain the prime objective as we note a minor push chasing after both the 1936S and 1937 in MS65FB at $74 & $40 respectively.

WALKING LIBERTY HALVES: Some decorum may finally be returning here. In addition to the always in demand early rarities such as the 1921 PDS trio, we note that selective Walker buyers are eagerly rearing their heads for some middle date material.

DOLLARS: Morgans are a relatively quiet lot this report, yet as Spot Silver continues to escalate we hear many voracious collectors clamoring for those moderately priced cartwheels as the ever-popular common Carson City 1883 and 1884 issues each claim $175 in Choice. Peace Dollars remain in demand with buyers raising Bid for 1928 examples in multiple Circ grades.

PROOF SETS AND MINT SETS: What's this? Several gains and moderate supporting Bids embracing the Proof Set segment? It's true, as the popular 1955 flat pack set claims $115 and the run for the 1999S Silver Sets drives Bid to $290. Mint Sets reveal that only the 1947 inaugural issue is faltering a bit to $975, yet this is offset by a sprinkling of buyers visible elsewhere at or near Bid.

COMMEMORATIVES: The ongoing popularity of this series continues as dealers are making their presence known in the hunt for several Classic Silver Commems. Buyers are beginning to return, looking for the popular collector issues such as the Antietam, Cincinnati, Hudson and Spanish Trail as each reflect modest advances in Gem or better. Classic Gold reveals that the dynamic and always desirable Pan-Pac slug duo still cater to solid support. Not surprisingly, the 11 piece classic Gold conclave is still waiting for some bargain hunters to swoop in as the 1903 Jefferson rolls back to $1,585 in MS64.

TYPE: As many dealers prepare for the upcoming west coast junket it's obvious that buyers will be searching not only for fresh eye appealing wonder coins but also quality Circulated examples. No easy task as problem-free material in both areas just can't be found in quantity. Proof Type entertains us as Liberty Seated N/M Dollars advance in PR60 – PR64 as the latter claims $4,800. Not to be upstaged the popular Trade Dollars make a triple Bid jump in like grades as PR64 examples top $3,800.

GOLD: As Gold Spot continues to cater to higher supporting levels the allure of the precious metal as well as heightened collector demand has translated into a veritable avalanche of plus signs seen blanketing nearly all below. Those beneficiaries include virtually all scarcer Gold Type with a half dozen displaying a moderate triple Bid advance in MS63-MS65.

The weekly COIN DEALER newsletter (the Greysheet) reports the national Dealer-to-Dealer wholesale coin market, monitoring all possible transactions and offers to buy and sell coins sight-seen. The coins may be certified or "raw" (uncertified), but the grading MUST ADHERE to the current leading standard. Prices reported derive from the highest legitimate Bids and lowest legitimate Asks seen nationally; they do not necessarily reflect the levels at which any particular dealer might offer to buy or sell that coin. Bids reported consider activity in the certified sight-unseen market, which already include consideration of certification costs. Bids for a sight-seen "raw" coin may be higher or lower than for a sight-unseen certified coin due to current market conditions. The CDN may not change Bid due to the bidding adjustments of the high bidder, but will be strongly influenced by Buys which are higher or Sells which are lower than current Bid/Ask levels. INVESTOR/COLLECTOR NOTE: The prices in this newsletter are from Dealer-to-Dealer transactions; you should expect to pay a premium above Ask when purchasing coins in a retail transaction; you may also commission a Dealer for your purchases.

The Bid prices listed within represent what individual dealers are willing to pay for coins that meet their particular grading criteria. Coins graded by other dealers or grading services, such as PCGS, NCI, ANACS, NGC, and any other services may not conform to the grading standards as interpreted by the dealer or dealers whose bid is represented within. Therefore, a specific coin could be worth more or less than the listed Bid price. For listed Bid prices of coins certified by ANACS, NCI, PCGS, and NGC, please refer to the Certified Coin Dealer newsletter.

BU ROLLS

The following prices are for typical rolls of the dates involved. In the Lincoln series, spotted or otherwise inferior rolls are worth less than listed prices and "gem" rolls often bring more. In the Jefferson series, some of the rolls in the late 50's tend to be dark - these bring lower prices; "gem, full steps" rolls (when available) bring higher prices. In the Mercury series, "gem, full bands" rolls are worth more than listed prices - particularly the pre-1941 issues. Washington rolls - dull or "put together" bring lower prices. Gem roll strike Walking Liberty rolls (particularly the S-mint issues) are worth more than listed prices. MS-65 singles may be found in the MONTHLY SUPPLEMENT. Mercury & Walker singles are in the CDN.

Single copy price $4.00 Vol. XLV No. 7 February 16, 2007 . . . a Friday morning report on the Coin Market

DEALERS READY FOR ACTION IN LONG BEACH

DRAPED BUST DOLLAR CLAIMS $672,500

The Market in Depth

Collector coins were readily changing hands in St. Louis at the Greater American Coin Fair held February 9-11. Many dealers reported to have had an "excellent show," with strong retail sales and decent wholesale activity. The Scotsman February 9 Midwest Winter Sale held in conjunction with the show realized more than $1.3 million.

Next, dealers immcdiately headed west to participate in the 4 public auctions and Long Beach Expo. The February 10, 2007 Pre-Long Beach Rarities sale by Bowers and Merena is in the books first realizing $3.5 million. Both Superior and Goldberg Pre-Long Beach Auctions are still in progress. Dealers are also actively buying and selling from within their hotel rooms with some even securing a pre-show trading room to accommodate the action. Of course we know that many come to fill want lists for their customers but there are also coins to be sold as well. The needs of dealers are very vast but they are also quite specific. They will, of course, be looking to buy those rare coins that have a good deal of eye appeal and pizzazz. That's because these are the coins that rarely are returned to them after they are placed with a customer. All of you know that a happy customer is more likely to be a repeat customer. Some of today's needs include: better date Gold in AU58 and better, early coinage of all metals from 1793 thru 1839; Carson City coinage of all series; and better date Barber Dimes and Quarters in grades from VF thru MS64. Type coins are another popular area that's experiencing demand but in this case dealers are looking for some slightly better dates. They want coins that are problem-free and especially those that have attractive, original color. Things seem to be off to a good start with Gold, often declining during Long Beach Shows, hitting a 6 month high trading above $660 per ounce. Gold is enjoying greater demand after a December report indicated a greater than expected gap in our nation's trade deficit. This puts additional pressure on the U.S. dollar and thereby gives greater appeal for the yellow metal. Unfortunately it doesn't seem to help some of the Mint State Type Gold in MS63 and better in the short run but if it continues higher, it should in the long run.

We have listed a few of the many auction highlights for the two completed Febuary sales.

The weekly COIN DEALER newsletter (the Greysheet) reports the national Dealer-to-Dealer wholesale coin market, monitoring all possible transactions and offers to buy and sell coins sight-seen. The coins may be certified or "raw" (uncertified), but the grading MUST ADHERE to the current leading standard. Prices reported derive from the highest legitimate Bids and lowest legitimate Asks seen nationally; they do not necessarily reflect the levels at which any particular dealer might offer to buy or sell that coin. Bids reported consider activity in the certified sight-unseen market, which already include consideration of certification costs. Bids for a sight-seen "raw" coin may be higher or lower than for a sight-unseen certified coin due to current market conditions. The CDN may not change Bid due to the bidding adjustments of the high bidder, but will be strongly influenced by Buys which are higher or Sells which are lower than current Bid/Ask levels. INVESTOR/COLLECTOR NOTE: The prices in this newsletter are from Dealer-to-Dealer transactions; you should expect to pay a premium above Ask when purchasing coins in a retail transaction; you may also commission a Dealer for your purchases.

This Week's Market

MERCURY DIMES: Mercs remain under the positive influence of several buyers as a handful from the '30s inch higher in Choice. At least one dealer has feelers out for quality Full Banded examples in the $500-$20K range and will pay over current Bid to secure them.

WALKING LIBERTY HALVES: Most key dates such as the 1919 D and S as well as the 1921 P, D and S remain in heated demand. Yet aside from the aforementioned, many from the '30s on are still at a crawl's pace at best as several more roll back in Gem. The short-set, perhaps augmented by new collectors swayed here courtesy of the Silver Eagle program are on the receiving end of a pair of modest advances in MS65.

DOLLARS: As dealers still look to be in a solid cash position and jockey for top quality offerings many better dated yet available Morgans are the revenue source. Conversely, commoners in Gem still maintain a solid position with buyers at present levels and we note that MS64 material is edging up a bit. Peace Dollars are the scene of continued enthusiasm as several scarcer dates climb higher in sundry Uncirculated columns led by the triple Bid jump for this series' last Philly issue, 1935.

PROOF SETS AND MINT SETS: Proof Set buyers still have a penchant for those scarcer exquisitely produced early sets yet a few more dealers are getting on-board here for some later issues. As a pair including the popular 1955 Flat now at $120 Bid moved up and only a handful of lower priced entries are down a tad, stability may finally be returning here. Mint Sets too, also readily reveal a more visible buyer bias at current levels.

COMMEMORATIVES: Although select scarcities are doing well with buyers, much high-grade material is being jettisoned to generate quick cash. Conversely, legitimate demand continues to pursue the once unpopular Booker T Washington and Washington Carver Sets. As buyers target this segment we note that both the 1953 and 1954 Washington Carver Sets are commanding a sizable 30% increase in AU now Bid at $65. Though on the move, these low mintage issues appear to be still undervalued. Another round of Bid increases are in place for better Modern Gold Commems. Reverse Proof American Eagles both Silver and Gold are also higher, now Bid $185 and $3,400 respectively.

TYPE: Dealers will be scouring the bourse as early Copper is still raging as are several Liberty Seated Quarters and Halves. Leading this push we observe a solid $2K advance chasing the very tough No Drapery Quarters in Gem. With a combined PCGS/NGC population of a paltry 8 in MS65 and a scant 11 achieving a loftier numeric award, finding one will be a coup.

GOLD: With Gold trekking to yet higher ground we of course note the obligatory plus signs following the more bullion dependant Gold coins. However we note a bit of departure from the last several weeks as many in Choice-Gem are displaying minor losses as perhaps sustained confidence at these elevated levels is not shared by most buyers.

Sight-Seen wholesale prices for accurately graded U.S. Coins – Certified or Raw

Single copy price $4.00 Vol. XLV No. 8 February 23, 2007 ...a Friday morning report on the Coin Market

WHOLESALE TRADING BRISK AT EXPO PRESIDENTIAL DOLLAR SERIES BEGINS

The Market in Depth

For the most part, dealers are satisfied with their Long Beach Expo results. The show may not have been overly crowded with retail buyers but the activity level was strong. One dealer that spent his time searching the bourse for Morgan Dollars believes that demand is getting stronger. He said, "I think that there's a huge number of players out there and so the competition is, in part, responsible for the difficulty in finding coins." Some were telling us that Morgan and Peace Dollar rolls were very strong, especially for the premium quality rolls that have more MS63 and MS64 examples included. Some dealers are rather reluctant in buying raw common Morgans or possible upgrades, because after the grading fees are paid little room is left for profit. This is especially true for the inexperienced that may make a mistake or two in their grading assessment. Dealers told us that the overall market is very good but it is still extremely tough to buy. They say that it isn't the Asking prices but rather they just can't seem to find anything that's worth throwing money at.

The overall show was active and most agreed that the wholesale portion of the market outpaced the retail segment. It seemed that the collectors appeared to be a bit more tentative. One dealer said that it helps to know what must be done to complete transactions. He said that two components are necessary for success. First, dealers should be willing to accept current levels as this will allow for a greater willingness to do business. Second, dealers need to be creative and flexible with each potential trade. In one retail transaction, a collector working on his registry set bought 8 early Draped Bust Dollars for $200,000. Another dealer said that he sold 2 key date PCGS 1877 Indian Cents. An MS66RB realized $50,000 from one serious collector and another grading MS65RB was gobbled up by another collector for $15,000. Carson City Gold seems to always attract the attention of buyers and this Long Beach Expo was no different. We hear that the "CC" $20 Liberties are realizing heavy demand and those dealers that have problem-free examples are having little trouble finding buyers.

The Heritage Long Beach Coin Auction realized more than $12.5 million. We have listed a few of the many highlights from the February 14-17 sale. More than $30 million changed hands at public auction in Southern California when combined with the Bowers and Merena, Superior and Goldberg Pre-Long Beach sales.

This Week's Market

CENTS THRU HALVES: Scarcer Nickel rolls like the popular 1942D Jefferson are revving up, now Bid $1,625. S-Mint Washington Quarters also hear the call as the 1951S and 1952S each post a $50 advance.

MERCURY DIMES: Other than a few skirmishes with predominantly common Full-Banded material most here have been stable yet quiet. This is not to say that Merces are taking a back seat to other series as multiple buyers are omnipresent for most at or near present Bid.

WALKING LIBERTY HALVES: Walkers, although revealing a handful of negligible losses for some mid dated examples, appear to be rounding the corner. Visible buyer demand is on the rise especially within the popular short-set as minor gains are seen visiting a trio here in Gem.

DOLLARS: Peace Dollars attempt to wrestle away the headline here as strength abounds for nearly all as the persuasive and deserved $500 advance targets the tough 1923S in Gem. With only 160 examples graded as such by PCGS/NGC and but a minuscule 4 graded higher, for most a solid MS65 will have to suffice. Many scarcer DMPLs are finding a solid peppering of gains led by the $200 advance for the popular 1881CC in MS65DMPL. Sacagawea Dollars are now higher, conceivably in response to the release of the new Presidential Dollars.

PROOF SETS AND MINT SETS: The good news here is that the prime early Proof Sets from 1936 - 1942 remain tight with buyers at current levels. The bad news is that those from 1950-1955 along with other later issues are accentuating the negative once again. Mint Sets offer a bit more stability as the 1976S 3 piece set inches up.

COMMEMORATIVES: Several scarcer issues like the Hawaiian and Grant with Star in Circ and WC and BTW sets in MS64 are moving up. The 11 piece Classic Gold ensemble although on virtual life support is at least for this issue, seen resting comfortably at present levels with only a pair surrendering minor losses.

TYPE: Quality Mint State Type always seems to have demand that exceeds the spotty supply lines and this is very much the case as the right side of the Type chart is flush with substantial gains. Many tough to find Bust and Seated denominations are on the receiving end of this buyers barrage. Not surprisingly, the Draped Bust Quarters and Halves are the recipients of the largest dollar gains, $3K and $5K respectively. These Bid jumps are warranted as the Quarter reveals a paltry combined PCGS/NGC population of a mere dozen in Gem with only 8 recorded higher. Big sister Draped Bust, Large Eagle Halves follow, reporting in with a modest contingent of 20 in MS65 and but 5 recognized for a further numeric advancement.

GOLD: Many collectors and investors remain on the sidelines attempting to figure out the Gold market and are a bit reluctant to make a move at present levels. At some point the decreasing premiums in price for Eagles and Double Eagles over Gold Spot should become appealing. Yet aside from this uncertainty a few better Gold issues moved higher as the tough Type I $20 Lib takes it up a notch to $9,600 in Gem.

The weekly COIN DEALER newsletter (the Greysheet) reports the national Dealer-to-Dealer wholesale coin market, monitoring all possible transactions and offers to buy and sell coins sight-seen. The coins may be certified or "raw" (uncertified), but the grading MUST ADHERE to the current leading standard. Prices reported derive from the highest legitimate Bids and lowest legitimate Asks seen nationally; they do not necessarily reflect the levels at which any particular dealer might offer to buy or sell that coin. Bids reported consider activity in the certified sight-unseen market, which already include consideration of certification costs. Bids for a sight-seen "raw" coin may be higher or lower than for a sight-unseen certified coin due to current market conditions. The CDN may not change Bid due to the bidding adjustments of the high bidder, but will be strongly influenced by Buys which are higher or Sells which are lower than current Bid/Ask levels. INVESTOR/COLLECTOR NOTE: The prices in this newsletter are from Dealer-to-Dealer transactions; you should expect to pay a premium above Ask when purchasing coins in a retail transaction; you may also commission a Dealer for your purchases.

The Bid prices listed within represent what individual dealers are willing to pay for coins that meet their particular grading criteria. Coins graded by other dealers or grading services, such as PCGS, NCI, ANACS, NGC, and any other services may not conform to the grading standards as interpreted by the dealer or dealers whose bid is represented within. Therefore, a specific coin could be worth more or less than the listed Bid price. For the Bid prices of coins certified by ANACS, NCI, PCGS, and NGC, please refer to the Certified Coin Dealer newsletter.

BU ROLLS

The following prices are for typical rolls of the dates involved. In the Lincoln series, spotted or otherwise inferior rolls are worth less than listed prices and "gem" rolls often bring more. In the Jefferson series, some of the rolls in the late 50's tend to be dark—these bring lower prices, "gem, full steps" rolls (when available) bring higher prices. In the Mercury series, "gem, full bands" rolls are worth more than listed prices, particularly the pre-1941 issues. Washington rolls—both or "put together" bring lower prices. Great full strike Walking Liberty rolls (particularly the S-mint issues) are worth more than listed prices. MS-65 singles may be found in the MONTHLY SUPPLEMENT, Mercury & Walker singles are in the CDN.

You know that Heritage Auction Galleries is the unquestioned leader in rare coin sales. You know that no one sells more coins and currency than Heritage. What you may not know is that you can now join forces with Heritage, quickly, easily and securely, all from the comfort and convenience of your home or office. All you have to do is join the Heritage Virtual Bourse, an online venue in which you can leverage the selling power and the global reach of the World's #1 Numismatic Auctioneer, to sell YOUR valuable coins.

List your coins on the Heritage website with the click of a mouse. Buyers contact you via email, and you are free to accept, decline, or make a counter-offer. Your inventory isn't "tied up", as you don't send the coins to Heritage until they're sold.

And in the meantime you can offer them in other venues. Buyers find your coins through Heritage's suite of collector's resources, including MyWantList and MyCollection. The Heritage Virtual Bourse is like a coin convention that's open 24 hours a day! Don't miss out on this opportunity to list your coins and start making money the Heritage way!

GOLD’S VOLATILITY WEIGHS ON MARKET

NUMISMATIC PREMIUMS CONTINUE TO MELT

The Market in Depth

Gold is already enjoying an 8 percent increase since January 5, 2007. It is now over $21 per ounce higher than our last report and is closing in on a 9-month high. Silver is also enjoying its share of prosperity by climbing to $14.55 per ounce, up 77¢, representing a 6% spike from last week. The precious metals' gains are having an impact on the rare coin market, but not to the extent that one would come to expect. Last year in our May 19, 2006 issue Gold Spot was trading for the same level that it is today at $684 per ounce, yet the numismatic premium over melt was much higher. $20 Saint-Gaudens and Liberty issues were Bid at $690 and $675 respectively in VF20. However today these popular issues are only Bid $665 and $655, down 4% and 3%. MS60 specimens are even worse, last May 19 Saints and Libs were each Bid $725, today they are Bid 6% lower at $685 and $680. A similar scenario can be seen in common circulated Morgan Dollars. Silver Spot has been increasing dramatically yet additional sellers are visible, offering material at virtually the same levels as when Silver was lower. Also, dealers are not as quick to buy-in to this metal rally knowing that the volatility within this market can change on a dime. This may leave them holding coins that can only be sold for a loss. Consequently we don't see as many Bid increases nor are they as substantial as you might expect to find. Instead, we see several dealers actively looking to sell some of this stuff while the rally is on. Selling Gold Type is an easy and convenient way to raise some additional funds in hurry, and becomes relevant with the added pressure from outstanding auction bills that are due. As we pointed out, this means that the numismatic premiums (above melt) are dropping as well. For those collectors looking to add some at these beauties at very reasonable levels it's very inviting. Six months from now it may also prove to be very rewarding.

Everybody knows that the weather this time of year, as we begin March, is unpredictable. As winter maintains its grip on the nation the same can be said for the rare coin market that's still suffering from those looking to sell their coins at Bid. Many of these coins covering Silver and Gold Commemoratives, Morgan Dollars, Walking Liberty Half Dollars and others are common enough that dealers feel comfortable selling them for reduced levels. They know that this type of material can be repurchased fairly easily in the future so discounting today makes sense. Therefore the market may still need some more time at current levels before resuming its upward trend that's been so characteristic of this bull market.

This Week's Market

MERCURY DIMES: Popularity still embraces Ms Winged Liberty albeit with less visible vigor from buyers than seen in other areas of the market. Something within everyone's budget can be found here, whether it is $20 for a dazzling late date Gem or several thousand dollars for a rare Full Banded example.

WALKING LIBERTY HALVES: A mid winter Bidder's thaw is still in effect as a dozen more Walkers are taking another run down the seller's slalom. Those getting the cold shoulder are once again mostly mid to late date entries in Gem. Conversely we find none of this melt down plaguing prime issues as one of the series key players, 1921D is stepping up, combating this apparent nonsense as a solid $1,000 advance propels her to $22K in MS65.

DOLLARS: Healthy adjustment are still in the works for many better date Morgans. Nevertheless as Spot Silver surges buyers feel the need for a supply of generic MS65s as they bump up to $120 Bid. Another vigorous dose of elevated Bids is also landing on assorted DMPLs as the hunt continues for these popular and scarce issues. Peace Dollars showcase staunch support as a higher paying audience clamors for Gems, now toping $130. Once again the regular issue Sacagawea Dollars from 2004-2006 are receiving increased Bids as these perhaps undervalued and comparatively lower mintage misfits make some noise. Plain Edge Washington Dollar errors are surfacing with an initial Asking price of $75.

PROOF SETS AND MINT SETS: Mint Sets are a popular flavor this week as buyers have the taste for a quartet of tougher early issues as the 1947, 1948, 1949 and 1953 each reveal moderate advances. Leading the charge we find the inaugural 1947 set powering $50 higher to $1,025. Proof Sets also mirror a more positive bias as four entries in this corner are also wanted at higher levels.

COMMEMORATIVES: As many more Classic Silver editions are spiraling their way to lower levels it is evident that this curfew is not being observed by the ever popular Booker T Washington or Washington-Carver Sets as they continue to heat up with a blaze of higher offers. Classic Gold is still being beaten up though as eight of the 11-piece ensemble reels back further in MS64 and better. The lone bright spot is the massive $50 Pan-Pac Round slug delivering a solid $5K advance in MS66.

TYPE: Circulated collector coins are facing increased demand as dealers have raised the ante on everything from Flying Eagle Cents to the rarest Type coin, that being the coveted 1796/97 Draped Bust Halves as Good examples feature a deserved $2K hike now Bid at $25K.

GOLD: As the yellow metal aims for yet higher territory even those less inspired are beginning to see the Golden light. With the obligatory swathe of plus signs beckoning nearly all below, take a close look at the ever-popular $10 Indians as buyers are on the warpath attempting to hunt them down by placing significantly higher Bids in Choice through Gem.

The weekly COIN DEALER newsletter (the Greysheet) reports the national Dealer-to-Dealer wholesale coin market, monitoring all possible transactions and offers to buy and sell coins sight-seen. The coins may be certified or "raw" (uncertified), but the grading MUST ADHERE to the current leading standard. Prices reported derive from the highest legitimate Bids and lowest legitimate Asks seen nationally; they do not necessarily reflect the levels at which any particular dealer might offer to buy or sell that coin. Bids reported consider activity in the certified sight-unseen market, which already include consideration of certification costs. Bids for a sight-seen "raw" coin may be higher or lower than for a sight-unseen certified coin due to current market conditions. The CDN may not change Bid due to the bidding adjustments of the high bidder, but will be strongly influenced by Buys which are higher or Sells which are lower than current Bid/Ask levels. INVESTOR/COLLECTOR NOTE: The prices in this newsletter are from Dealer-to-Dealer transactions, you should expect to pay a premium above Ask when purchasing coins in a retail transaction; you may also commission a Dealer for your purchases.

MAKE THE CONNECTION

Turn to Certified Coin Exchange -
THE LARGEST ONLINE MARKETPLACE FOR THE RARE COIN MARKET for Your Selling and Buying Needs.

Dealers:

Not everyone can be a CCE member. You must be a professional numismatist with extensive experience and excellent trading references from current dealers to be a member of CCE.

Dealers on CCE/FACTS buy and sell all types of numismatic material - bullion, raw coins, certified coins, bags, state quarters, eagles, foreign coins, ancients, currency, and numismatic supplies.

Advantages of the CCE/FACTS system are as follows:

- Send buy/sell messages to hundreds of dealers on FACTS
- Access live sight-unseen/sight-seen CCE prices on certified coins
- Access spot metals prices
- View prices on bullion coins on the Bullion Quotation System
- List coins FREE on Collector's Corner
- Access the CCE Market Report online
- Join the community of CCE Member Firms that are already members

If you are a professional numismatist, you owe it to yourself and your business to join the CCE/FACTS network, and begin to access the world's largest network of coin dealers with a CCE/FACTS membership.

Collectors:

CCE Collector's Corner is the marketplace for buying certified or raw coins.

When you buy rare coins online, deal direct with the world's top dealers - Dealers registered with Certified Coin Exchange, the largest online dealer-to-dealer numismatic network in the world.

Simply browse the site by category or perform keyword searches for a particular item of interest. CCE Collector's Corner is a great place to fill your want list, or find dealers in the types of coins that you are interested in.

Many of the coins have images, so you can see the coin before purchase. If you have a question for a dealer, you can just click the "Ask Seller" button and either ask a question, make an offer, or let a dealer know your interest.

Visit us today at www.CertifiedCoinExchange.com to see for yourself. At the same time, register for a chance to win the "Certified Coin of the Month."

. . . a Friday morning report on the Coin Market

WILD RIDE CONTINUES FOR METALS

PRESIDENTIAL DOLLAR ERROR TRADING

The Market in Depth

Dealers are expecting a little “March Madness” of their own when they attend the ANA’s National Money Show in Charlotte, North Carolina March 15-18. This major east coast show is fast approaching with many having high expectations. That’s because dealers believe that the current price levels have already been digested and so they expect a greater amount of activity to be taking place. This should bode well for those dealers looking to blow-out some material as well as those that are looking to buy. Dealers hope that they find many of those want list coins for their anxious clients back home in addition to acquiring some neat material for their inventory. This years’ location has a rich numismatic tradition with the Gold producing Charlotte Mint currently operating as a museum for tourists and the Dahlonega Mint in Georgia not too far away.

What a difference a week makes. So much for Gold’s prosperity, and closing in on a 9-month high as it just as abruptly applied the breaks and hit the skids. Actually it was more of a dive as Gold dropped precipitously to a 6-week low touching $633 per ounce, a level it hadn’t seen since January 23. Now it has begun to recover somewhat. Silver’s decline is much more severe — plummeting 13%, off nearly $2 an ounce since our last report. Financial markets have been quite volatile worldwide and it appears that there are a lot of nervous investors out there right now. Most of the rare coin dealers that we speak with are not as concerned by the day-to-day plight of the precious metals. This is especially true if it doesn’t directly interfere within their little niche in the coin market. For example, a Morgan and Peace Dollar specialist is still seeing a lot of demand for Peace Dollars currently and finding enough coins remains a problem. He tells us that many collectors are looking to buy nice, properly graded, white Peace Dollars that are problem-free. Unfortunately he tells us that these coins are extremely difficult to find. When he goes to a show and searches the bourse over he may only find eight to ten coins out of a 100 that measure-up to the quality he and his clients demand. Most of the coins he sees are ugly with a haze over them, usually the result of a poorly executed dip from some time ago. White coins will sell as fast as he can get them. He added, “There are tons of white Morgans but not true of the Peace Dollars.” He is especially interested in the key and semi-key Peace Dollars but will buy generic examples if they are white and grade MS66 or better. The material he buys won’t remain in his inventory as these are the coins that his customers want and will readily pay for. Some noise is being generated from the discovery of 2007 Presidential Dollar errors. The “Plain Edge” variety is turning up heavily in Florida and one expert is estimating that well over 40,000 pieces exist and quite possibly as many as 300,000. Currently they are trading in the $50-$100 range as veteran dealers proceed cautiously in light of more information.

This Week’s Market

CENTS THRU HALVES: Lincoln rolls remain hot as these in demand Coppers from 1934-1942 are on the move. Several early Jefferson rolls are also advancing. With one full year left in the program, State Quarters are also feeling the heat as several earlier issues become acquainted with higher offers.

MERCURY DIMES: Appearing not to have an agenda, Mercs remain tempered by visible buyer support yet for the moment most dealers are happy to remain pat with their Bids, hoping to snare needed material without raising the ante.

WALKING LIBERTY HALVES: What is this? In a departure from the wholesale chaos that we have observed over the last several months, Walkers are making quite the turn around. No losses are reported and a half dozen from the ‘30s on are fashioning higher Bids in Gem. Certainly not a ball of fire, yet perhaps enough action to take the chill off as some buyers are making a return here.

DOLLARS: Morgans appear to be on the slow road to recovery with fanciers of these majestic Silver cartwheels remaining omnipresent as a smattering of gains offsets a few minor losses. Yet with that said, Peace Dollars remain the powerhouse here as once again this popular short series finds buyers pumping up their Bids for many scarce entries in Very Choice and Gem. Business strike Sacagawea Dollars from 2002-2006 continue to be a fascination as they inch higher.

PROOF SETS AND MINT SETS: Proof Sets come out flat as several are lower with only the popular 1999S Silver Set mustering an advance to $305 Bid. Mint Sets offer no power play either as a pair in this section reveal minor set backs.

COMMEMORATIVES: There is a bit of good news on both fronts. Although Classic Silver Commems display no sustained driving action there are none declining either. In fact a pair from New England are springing forward as the Bridgeport and Lexington-Concord each move up a notch in Gem. Booker T Washington and Washington-Carver sets still find several of each issue moving higher in Choice and Better. The beleaguered Classic Gold regiment is perhaps on the mend with buyers as well, with none retreating and the 1922 Grant with Star seen riding a plus sign in MS66 now Bid at $3,900.

TYPE: As the ever-growing audience for these obsolete treasures grows we find dealers willing to raise the action to spring a few better examples. One buyer has said “just ship” as he is anxious to secure multiples of the popular 1793 Wreath Large Cents. Problem-free examples in VG- XF are rolling up impressive advances as the latter claims a welcomed $500 increase. Another series under intensified demand finds the desirable Liberty Seated Dollars With Motto climbing as PR65 dazzlers now claim $9,500 Bid.

GOLD: As the golden express has hit a wall of resistance and gives up nearly $50 an ounce since our last report, we of course expect to see a rash of minus signs below... which we do. Yet on the positive side while the yellow metal sorts things out, look at the scarce Type I $20 Libs as these popular coins claim a considerable triple Bid jump in AU58 – MS64 as the latter tops $7,000.

The weekly COIN DEALER newsletter (the Greysheet) reports the national Dealer–to–Dealer wholesale coin market, monitoring all possible transactions and offers to buy and sell coins sight–seen. The coins may be certified or “raw” (uncertified), but the grading MUST ADHERE to the current leading standard. Prices reported derive from the highest legitimate Bids and lowest legitimate Asks seen nationally; they do not necessarily reflect the levels at which any particular dealer might offer to buy or sell that coin. Bids reported consider activity in the certified sight–unseen market, which already include consideration of certification costs. Bids for a sight–seen “raw” coin may be higher or lower than for a sight–unseen certified coin due to current market conditions. The CDN may not change Bid due to the bidding adjustments of the high bidder, but will be strongly influenced by Buys which are higher or Sells which are lower than current Bid/Ask levels. INVESTOR/COLLECTOR NOTE: The prices in this newsletter are from Dealer–to–Dealer transactions; you should expect to pay a premium above Ask when purchasing coins in a retail transaction; you may also commission a Dealer for your purchases.

BU ROLLS

The following prices are for typical rolls of the dates involved. In the Lincoln series, spotted or otherwise inferior rolls are worth less than listed prices and "gem" rolls often bring more. In the Jefferson series, some of the rolls in the late 50's tend to be dark—these bring lower prices; "gem, full steps" rolls (when available) bring higher prices. In the Mercury series, "gem, full steps" rolls are worth more than listed prices—particularly the pre-1941 issues. Washington rolls—dull or "put together" bring lower prices. New roll series—Washington Liberty, etc.—rolls (particularly the S-mint issues) are worth more than listed prices. MS-65 singles may be found in the MONTHLY SUPPLEMENT. Mercury & Walker singles are in the CDN.

*The Seven Day Guarantee™ is a new service that is available for double the quantity of coins submitted if we do not perform on our current guaranteed turnaround time of seven days on 15 Day Service and Economy Service submissions. If we do not perform on our current guaranteed turnaround time of seven days ICG will send you a certificate good for a free 20-coin economy submission. Guarantee only applies to regular U.S. coin submissions, which excludes varieties, errors, CONCA coins, and foreign coins. Turnaround time does not include shipping time and is measured from the day ICG receives your coins until the day ICG ships them back. Nothing in this offer is intended to constitute an offer of insurance or any other financial product. Please see our Terms and Conditions on the ICG grading submission form.

...a Friday morning report on the Coin Market

1920-S $10 INDIAN CAPTURES $1.73 MILLION AT ANA

This Week's Market

Dealers have already concluded their March 16-18 ANA's National Money Show activities with results that didn't live up to expectations. Several said that sales were just OK while even more were less pleased. They said that the show was "slow" and failed to generate enough business for them to be excited. Expectations for ANA mid winter extravaganzas are usually greater than for other shows. The difference here is that this year the Baltimore Expo immediately follows the ANA show. It is difficult for two large shows to both be successful back-to-back, even in this market, as some dealers will take a booth at only one venue. A couple of the major dealers were not in attendance, putting a serious crimp in the business climate at the outset. However the local dealers were certainly well represented, servicing more novice than veteran collectors. Others agreed but also added that the softness may just be a reflection of the current market that has certainly cooled off from its previously seen heights. Some astute dealers are saying that the wholesale side of the market is definitely softer and that the market is trading in a sideways cycle with generics being quiet. Wholesale trade has been hurt because of "credit issues" and credit in general, looming over the market like a dark cloud. It is extremely important for those in the coin business to have sound credit as it is necessary to facilitate transactions.

Some large deals were consummated in Charlotte along with high prices realized at auction. One dealer said that he negotiated a mid 6-figure sale of a complete 15-coin Type set of Bechtler Pioneer Gold coinage. How fitting that such a fine set change hands in Charlotte, North Carolina. Heritage held an auction in conjunction with the ANA show March 15-16 and it realized more than $11 million. In addition to the $1.73 million realized for the PCGS MS67 1920-S $10 Indian, highlights include: $97,750 for a 1920-D Buffalo Nickel graded PCGS MS66; $212,750 for a 1795 Flowing Hair Dollar, 3 Leaves graded PCGS MS64; $379,500 for a 1799 Draped Bust Dollar, No Berries graded PCGS MS66; $48,875 for a 1814/3 $5 Capped Head graded NGC MS64; $86,250 for an 1890 $20 Liberty graded NGC PR65DCam and $69,000 for a 1926-D $20 Saint-Gaudens graded PCGS MS64.

It is still extremely tough to find and buy nice coins because of the limited available supply and continued rising Asking prices. Competition from collectors placing Bids on the internet has also made it more difficult for dealers to buy in public auctions. Collectors and dealers alike are hoping to be successful in acquiring fresh material while attending the Baltimore Expo March 22-25 and auctions being held by Bowers & Merena and Stacks.

CENTS THRU HALVES: Lincoln rolls from the mid 40's through early 50's are still hot as these popular "wheaties" advance further. Silver War Nickels muscle ahead while the key 1942-D drives to $1,700. State Quarters are again on the move as the popular 2002-P Tennessee "guitar" rolls now Bid $29.

MERCURY DIMES: Merc buyers may not be a vociferous lot yet their tenacity remains evident in the propensity and depth of their Bids, which are highly visible week in and week out. This report confirms no assertive push yet volumes of high-grade Full Banded material is still wanted.

WALKING LIBERTY HALVES: Buyers are still preoccupied in assembling quality short-sets of Walkers as MS63 sets are still being pursued in quantity at current Bid. A quartet from 1929-1939 are giving up some territory in Gem as sellers sacrifice some of the scarcer yet more readily available from the ranks.

DOLLARS: Morgans elite DMPLs send out a resounding salvo as over 2 dozen of these very scarce dazzlers mirror significant advances. On the other end of the spectrum, generics grading MS60-MS63 are recipients of a minor push. Don't overlook a trio of entries from the historic New Orleans branch as the very tough 1880-O tops $1,260 in Very Choice. For most collectors a solid MS64 will have to suffice as the combined PCGS/NGC population tally confirms a hardy 1,710 examples in this Mint State class with only 38 grading MS65 and none higher. Peace Dollars cradle potent resolve as the 1922-D takes $350 in Gem and the key 1928 powers to $12,500 in MS66. Plain Edge 2007 P&D Washington Dollars maintain high demand as Buyers tag BU examples at $105. Homemade dateless Dollars are entering the market identifiable by wide Copper band, plating, and reduced weight/diameter.

PROOF SETS AND MINT SETS: Proof Sets are displaying a bit more confidence as a half dozen spring modestly higher as the in demand 1999-S Silver Set tops $325 and the 2001-S Silver sister act claims $140. Mint Sets though quiet are revealing moderate support and most importantly no dissenters.

COMMEMORATIVES: Classic Silver Commems, though seeing light action reveal many stabilizing. In fact a few are observed springing ahead as the always in demand and hard to find properly graded Spanish Trail blazes a path to higher territory in Choice and Very Choice. Classic Gold still requires an adrenaline boost as a few more are giving up ground.

TYPE: A bevy of buyers are still keeping up appearances as most Bids for Type material remain rock solid. In fact the popular one-year Type 1859 Indian "White Cent" plows ahead to $435 reflecting nearly a 10% advance, this on the heels of last reports 15% escalation also in MS63. Proof Type reveals a modest increase for Barber Halves as PR64 examples claim $1,310.

GOLD: As Gold Spot continues to work on its rebound strategy much high grade material reflects dealer's uncertainty as rollbacks are in majority. One bright light bucking the system are once again the $10 Indians as they scamper to a higher happy hunting ground in AU58-MS64.

The weekly COIN DEALER newsletter (the Greysheet) reports the national Dealer-to-Dealer wholesale coin market, monitoring all possible transactions and offers to buy and sell coins sight-seen. The coins may be certified or "raw" (uncertified), but the grading MUST ADHERE to the current leading standard. Prices reported derive from the highest legitimate Bids and lowest legitimate Asks seen nationally; they do not necessarily reflect the levels at which any particular dealer might offer to buy or sell that coin. Bids reported consider activity in the certified sight-unseen market, which already include consideration of certification costs. Bids for a sight-seen "raw" coin may be higher or lower than for a sight-unseen certified coin due to current market conditions. The CDN may not change Bid due to the bidding adjustments of the high bidder but will be strongly influenced by Buys which are higher or Sells which are lower than current Bid/Ask levels. INVESTOR/COLLECTOR NOTE: The prices in this newsletter are from Dealer-to-Dealer transactions; you should expect to pay a premium above Ask when purchasing coins in a retail transaction; you may also commission a Dealer for your purchases.

The Bid prices listed within represent what individual dealers are willing to pay for coins that meet their particular grading criteria. Coins graded by other dealers or grading services such as PCGS, NCI, ANACS, NGC, and any other services may not conform to the grading standards as interpreted by the dealer or dealers whose bid is represented within. Therefore, a specific coin could be worth more or less than the listed Bid price. For future bid prices of coins certified by ANACS, NCI, PCGS, and NGC please refer to the Certified Coin Dealer newsletter.

BU ROLLS

The following prices are for typical rolls of the dates involved. In the Lincoln series, spotted or otherwise inferior rolls are worth less than listed prices and "gem" rolls often bring more. In the Jefferson series, some of the rolls in the late 50's tend to be dark—these bring lower prices; "gem, full steps" rolls (when available) bring higher prices. In the Mercury series, "gem, full bands" rolls are worth more than listed prices—particularly the pre-1941 issues. Washington rolls—dull or "put together" bring lower prices. Gem full strike Walking Liberty rolls (particularly the S-mint issues) are worth more than listed prices. MS-65 singles may be found in the MONTHLY SUPPLEMENT. Mercury & Walker singles are in the CDN.

DISCS (particularly the 3-inch issues) are worth more than listed prices. MS-65 singles may be found in the MONTHLY SUPPLEMENT. Mercury & Walker singles are in the CDN

MARKET REBOUNDS IN BALTIMORE

B&M AUCTION CLAIMS $7.2 MILLION

The Market in Depth

Expectations were much better from the outset of the Baltimore Convention than they were just a week earlier in Charlotte for the ANA Show. Most dealers told us that by the show's conclusion many of those expectations were achieved. It is still extremely difficult for dealers to find and buy the coins that they need for their customers and their depleted inventories. Part of the problem is that today's collectors are more knowledgeable and have a better understanding of what original and quality coins look like. They want problem-free coins that are attractive and choice for the grade. This in turn causes dealers to be a little more fussy because they know it will be increasingly difficult for them to recover from purchasing a "mistake". Many have come to realize that when better material is presented it comes with steep asking prices. Most dealers knew going in that they would have to spend strong money to capture some of these prizes and that's just what they had to do. One said, "early stuff with good eye appeal is very strong." Eye appeal is key because if any distractions exist, or if the color or strike are just a little bit off then the demand and value falls sharply.

Many believe that the overall market has leveled off somewhat based upon the increased quantities of lower quality coins that are available and their declining prices. However most were very encouraged by the activity and attendance that took place in Maryland. One dealer said "the show was active, good for buying and selling." This was true on the bourse for both wholesale and retail as well as at auction. For example, another dealer was able to buy an attractive 1854 Braided Hair Half Cent graded MS64R by PCGS for $2,500 from one of his customers. Early Type has been one area of the market that has been rock solid and the demand for this material is very evident today. One dealer was pleased because he was able to buy two 1796 Draped Bust Quarters in Baltimore. The first, an NGC AU58PL example was won at auction for $56,350. The second, a nice original 1796 Quarter grading PCGS F15 was purchased from another dealer on the bourse. It is acquisitions like these that make the trip and expense all worthwhile.

Bowers and Merena		Price Realized

1861-O	$20 Liberty	PCGS AU55	$51,750

The Bowers and Merena March 2007 Baltimore Auction generated more than $7.2 million March 22-23. We have listed some of the highlights.

This Week's Market

MERCURY DIMES: Stability still perseveres here as many buyers remain optimistic that varied scarce and high-grade specimens will be forthcoming at present levels. This strategy may change though, as collectors still having a passion for fully struck blazing white examples may be the impetus to raise the bar as demand for several key date Mercs still outstrips supplies.

WALKING LIBERTY HALVES: Walkers, whom until recently, were traveling down the road to oblivion have turned the corner and may be on the thoroughfare to recovery. Bid is $100 higher for 1934D Gems while the sometimes overlooked in higher grades 1940S tops $280 in MS65.

DOLLARS: Morgans have such staunch support from all areas of the collector's circle that it is virtually impossible to keep this popular series down for long. Note that the scarce 1880O is featuring another modest push as MS64 specimens claim $1,270. The tougher 1904 Philly entry is also elevated as Very Choice examples take $585. Peace Dollars remain active and declare $140 Bid for Gem commoners.

PROOF SETS AND MINT SETS: Overall a positive parade continues, as a trio of Proof Sets are displaying advances as the in demand 2001S Silver Set tops $150. Mint Sets are not quite as jubilant though, as the 1952 issue reports a $20 loss, this offset in part by 1970 Small Dates inching to $49 Bid.

COMMEMORATIVES: Almost always a collector's favorite Classic Silver Commems may be returning to form as popular issues are attracting higher offers. Leading the modest surge is the well designed 1925S California Jubilee, now commanding $910 in Gem. Several of the proud and historic Oregon Trail community are wearing plus signs in MS60 as are the Booker T Washington and Washington Carver Sets as the ongoing desire to conjure up quantities of this last issue from the Classic era continues. The Classic Gold ensemble though quiet may actually be ready to make some noise with buyers as the ongoing rollbacks may finally draw some bargain hunters.

TYPE: Proof Type delivers strong support for Copper as Indians, Lincolns and Two Cent pieces in all color combos are being pursued in Choice to Gem Proof. Barber Quarters also feel the heat as PR63 & PR64 examples reveal moderate hikes. The popular Lib Seated Dollars are likewise making a move and America's favorite Silver coin, the Morgan Dollar fashions a $100 advance to $900 in PR60. The hot one-year Type 1859 Indian Cent continues its 3 week run as dealers send smoke signals racing to $450 for them in MS63.

GOLD: As Gold Spot looks to break through to the next level, we observe that the bullion dependent disciples are all taking a step higher. Yet as we spot the relativity common $20 Saints roll back a bit in Choice thru Gem we observe that the hardy and scarcer $10 Indians are still climbing in like grades. In fact since Jan 5, 2007 this powerhouse has led the pack delivering in excess of a 30% increase in MS63.

The weekly COIN DEALER newsletter (the Greysheet) reports the national Dealer-to-Dealer wholesale coin market, monitoring all possible transactions and offers to buy and sell coins sight–seen. The coins may be certified or "raw" (uncertified), but the grading MUST ADHERE to the current leading standard. Prices reported derive from the highest legitimate Bids and lowest legitimate Asks seen nationally; they do not necessarily reflect the levels at which any particular dealer might offer to buy or sell that coin. Bids reported consider activity in the certified sight–unseen market, which already include consideration of certification costs. Bids for a sight–seen "raw" coin may be higher or lower than for a sight–unseen certified coin due to current market conditions. The CDN may not change Bid due to the bidding adjustments of the high bidder, but will be strongly influenced by Buys which are higher or Sells which are lower than current Bid/Ask levels. INVESTOR/COLLECTOR NOTE: The prices in this newsletter are from Dealer-to-Dealer transactions; you should expect to pay a premium above Ask when purchasing coins in a retail transaction; you may also commission a Dealer for your purchases.

SILVER COMMEMORATIVES

The Bid prices listed within represent what individual dealers are willing to pay for coins that meet their particular grading criteria. Coins graded by other dealers or grading services, such as PCGS, NCI, ANACS, NGC, and any other services may not conform to the grading standards as interpreted by the dealer or dealers whose bid is represented within. Therefore a specific coin could be worth more or less than the listed Bid price. For the Bid prices of coins certified by ANACS, NCI, PCGS, and NGC, please refer to the Certified Coin Dealer newsletter.

STRONG DEMAND MAINTAINS ACTIVE MARKET 1802 HALF DIME CLAIMS $135K AT AUCTION

The Market in Depth

The rare coin market is beginning the second quarter of the year as it began, being extremely active. Demand is very similar in that buyers in April are still looking for problem-free coins with a considerable degree of eye appeal and rarity. It has been extremely difficult for dealers to buy this material, not only because of their scarcity in the marketplace but also because of today's strong competition. Yet through it all many have learned to be patient and persistent, two of the necessary ingredients for success. This year's success may not come as easily for some as experienced during the past few years but the demand still remains powerfully strong. Consequently dealers believe that their relentless effort and hard work should eventually pay handsome dividends. They are also optimistic because they know that the market has backed-off from its previously established highs and is now trading at today's more comfortable levels. So it comes as no surprise that dealers continue to tell us that the rare coin market is "busy, good and healthy." They are also encouraged by the number of fresh auction lots that are routinely being offered because this supply of rare coins is so desperately needed. Collector demand is very strong, and often it takes a named collection appearing at public auction for an opportunity to fill some of the many coins that remain outstanding. Dealers and collectors are knowledgeable enough to know that the prices realized at these auctions are expected to be high, so many are prepared to stretch for select material when they do hit the block. A lost opportunity today may mean months or years of waiting before it comes around again. That's why the tough decisions must be nailed down prior to any sale. Record prices realized on select special rarities has become commonplace in this market and is just another indication that lets us know that the bull market is well intact. Key dates through semi-better dates of all series are still claiming serious Bids today. Attractive Commems, Dollars and Type continue to grab big bucks as well if the eye appeal and quality are strong for the grade.

David Lawrence Rare Coins concluded its Spring Collectors' Choice internet only auction April 2, realizing $680,000 for the 670 lots. Some highlights include: an NGC MS66 1927-D Buffalo Nickel that brought $19,550; a PCGS VF30 1802 Draped Bust Half Dime that scored $135,125; a PCGS MS65FB 1923-S Mercury Dime which sold for $4,600; a PCGS AU53 1797 Draped Bust Dollar, 10X6 Stars that hit $14,375; a PCGS MS61 1909-O $5 Indian hammered at $28,750; and an NGC MS61 1850 $20 Liberty that realized $13,800. Heritage is up next, scheduled to conduct its Dallas Coin Auction April 9-10.

This Week's Market

CENTS THRU HALVES: Fascination with early Lincoln rolls continues as collectors anticipate the fast approaching 100th anniversary Lincoln makeover in 2009. State Quarter rolls are also on the move as one dealer is offering complete P&D bag sets at $111K.

MERCURY DIMES: Mercs have legions of fans just waiting to obtain flashy Gems for their collections. Although Bids remain unchanged, something is bound to give as volumes of material from her Full Banded entourage and select rarities remain on unfulfilled want lists.

WALKING LIBERTY HALVES: Walkers are not sprinting ahead, yet as one dealer makes a concerted effort to capture various early examples we do concede that a growing base of support is visible. This attractive series has a more solid footing than it has been privy to for quite some time.

DOLLARS: Something is definitely brewing here as Morgan buyers are beginning to stir... Bids are strengthening and discounted material is drying up fast; this early spring could be quite active. This positive climate is also conducive to heightened interest in a few popular "CC" issues as well as the tough New Orleans issue of 1891 as MS64 examples top $660. With Gem specimens racing over 8 times the Bid of a Very Choice offering, many selective eyes will be focused on securing a suitable MS64. Peace Dollars are bustling with activity as a half dozen claim higher ground in Circ and a quartet elevate in various Mint State categories.

PROOF SETS AND MINT SETS: Prosperity does not wear well here as over a dozen Proof Sets are on the short end of buyer's declining Bids. Attempting to offset this surge we do find the likes of the in demand 1999S and 2001S Silver Sets advancing once again. Mint Sets remain lackluster as a trio of modest achievers attempts to stem the wave of dissenters.

COMMEMORATIVES: Here as with a few other heavily promoted series finds much of the surplus that was available earlier at lower levels, has dried up. Now as over a dozen Classic Silver Commems favorably priced for the average collector are picking up steam perhaps this would be a decisive time to secure them. Classic Gold on the other hand appears to still be in hibernation after a long winter, waiting for its wake up call.

TYPE: Type buyers remain steadfast with their various offers as this always in demand market segment is on the lookout for quality specimens for inventory and to be placed with collectors. Draped Bust Half Dollars of 1796-97 are always wanted and so not surprisingly we note that one dealer has said "just ship" as he is still in the hunt for problem-free specimens. Capped Bust Halves and Trade Dollars are each climbing in Choice. Proof Type finds Bids aren't shaved here either as Barber Quarters advance to $550 in PR63.

GOLD: As Gold Spot strengthens a bit further we observe that bullion sensitive issues respond accordingly. Among better Gold Type, $10 Indians are still on the move across-the-board yet it's the somewhat forgotten $3 Princess taking the lead with a $100 push to $5,700 in MS63.

The weekly COIN DEALER newsletter (the Greysheet) reports the national Dealer-to-Dealer wholesale coin market, monitoring all possible transactions and offers to buy and sell coins sight-seen. The coins may be certified or "raw" (uncertified), but the grading MUST ADHERE to the current leading standard. Prices reported derive from the highest legitimate Bids and lowest legitimate Asks seen nationally; they do not necessarily reflect the levels at which any particular dealer might offer to buy or sell that coin. Bids reported consider activity in the certified sight-unseen market, which already include consideration of certification costs. Bids for a sight-seen "raw" coin may be higher or lower than for a sight-unseen certified coin due to current market conditions. The CDN may not change Bid due to the bidding adjustments of the high bidder, but will be strongly influenced by Buys which are higher or Sells which are lower than current Bid/Ask levels. INVESTOR/COLLECTOR NOTE: The prices in this newsletter are from Dealer-to-Dealer transactions; you should expect to pay a premium above Ask when purchasing coins in a retail transaction; you may also commission a Dealer for your purchases.

BU ROLLS

The following prices are for typical rolls of the dates involved. In the Lincoln series, spotted or otherwise inferior rolls are worth less than listed prices and "gem" rolls often bring more. In the Jefferson series, some of the rolls in the late 50's tend to be dark—these bring lower prices, "gem, full steps" rolls (when available) bring higher prices. In the Mercury series, "gem, full bands" rolls are worth more than listed prices—particularly the pre-1941 issues. Washington rolls—dull or "put together" bring lower prices. Gem full bands Walking Liberty rolls (particularly the S-mint issues) are worth more than listed prices. MS-65 singles may be found in the MONTHLY SUPPLEMENT. Mercury & Walker singles are in the CDN.

...a Friday morning report on the Coin Market

BIDS RISE ON ANTICIPATED DEMAND SANTA CLARA EXPO, AUCTION ON DECK

The Market in Depth

The rare coin market usually experiences a slow period in the first half of April primarily because income taxes are due. Quite the contrary this time around as the market remains extremely active. Yes, a few dealers have commented on decreased sales and most retail outlets probably expected it. They know coin collecting is a hobby that requires discretionary income and bills must be paid first. Therefore dealers are currently adjusting their inventories selling stale and replaceable material at a discount to raise funds now. In addition to working the phone and teletype, multiple venues are currently engaged, often simultaneously to move coins quickly. The internet is the most widely used sales vehicle utilized by today's dealers, although some have yet to get onboard. Internet transactions are coming from eBay, web-site listings, consigning with auction companies and target emails. Brick and mortar showcases, Bid boards, booths at conventions, printed advertisements and promotional mailings round-out most of the sales avenues used. This strong activity and sheer volume of business are blatant reminders of the current bull market.

Clever dealer promotions continue to entice dormant numismatists into returning to the hobby. Several specific issues have already seen their Bids double and nearly triple over the past couple of years. Prices began rising for common Gem Buffalo Nickels well before their .9999 fine $50 Gold bullion counterparts were released in 2006. These high grade and somewhat generic Nickels have been steadily accumulated by dealers and collectors anticipating a rise in their popularity based on the re-release of the Fraser design. Currently 1907 $10 Indian and $20 Saint-Gaudens are being pursued in virtually all grades and will likely be marketed in a number of ways. Uncirculated '07 Saints paired with freshly minted $50 American Gold Eagles will make an attractive display. Circulated examples along side '07 Washington Dollars with visible edges is certainly interesting and an affordable presentation. Bids are skyrocketing for virtually all Cents dated 1909 in anticipation of increased demand brought on by the upcoming redesign of the Lincoln Cent in 2009. Large promotions will cause issues to rise steadily in price while orders are being fulfilled and will often quickly fall in value once the promotion is over and the coins begin to return to market. This scenario was most recently witnessed within the $3 Indian Princess series.

Date & Denomination	Grade	Apr-05 Bid	Apr-07 Bid	% Change
1909 Indian 1¢	VG	$2.20	$8.50	+286%
1909 VDB 1¢	VG	$3.55	$8.50	+139%
1937D Buffalo 5¢	MS65	$46	$58	+26%
1938D Buffalo 5¢	MS65	$37	$55	+49%
1907 $10 Indian	XF40	$300	$540	+80%
1907 $20 Saint	XF40	$470	$670	+43%

The Santa Clara Coin and Collectibles Expo is the next scheduled show that is usually well attended by many of the nation's largest and most active dealers. Superior Galleries will conduct a 900 lot public auction in conjunction with the Expo April 19-20 in California. A few highlights from the upcoming sale include: 1881 Trade Dollar NGC PR67; 1872-CC Liberty Seated Dollar NGC AU58; 1809/8 Capped Bust $5 NGC MS63; 1849-O $10 Liberty NGC MS61; and 1920-S $10 Indian PCGS AU55.

This Week's Market

MERCURY DIMES: Although many supporting Bids for Gems and Full Banded material are still relevant we have not seen any real buyer jubilation in this corner as there is no concerted push to raise the ante. Higher offers have been recorded for 1916D examples in VG along with a number of issues in XF condition.

WALKING LIBERTY HALVES: Some subtle Spring housekeeping reveals a few more early Walkers are being brushed back a bit. Nevertheless, late date material, in particular those within the short-set are still taking a hike to higher ground as both the 1945 P & D issues claim $130 in Gem.

DOLLARS: Morgan's strength lies within its rarities as the two scarcest Carson City installments are raging. Here we find the King 1889CC is raking in a phenomenal $40K advance in MS65 to $250K. Considering there are only 5 examples graded as such by PCGS/NGC and but 2 numerically higher, perhaps this powerful offer will spring one free. The last 'CC' issue of 1893 finds that the Prince of the series is no pauper as a $50K price tag in MS65 will attempt to flag down one of the 14 certified in Gem. The exquisite DMPLs continue to dazzle with advances and Peace Dollars showcase a handful of scarcer players moving up a rung in Very Choice.

PROOF SETS AND MINT SETS: Other than the prime early issues of 1936-1942, Proof Sets are not reflecting much interest as several more mirror recent episodes of buyer's malaise and drift a bit lower. Mint Sets though quiet are also in need of a spark.

COMMEMORATIVES: Activity on both sides of the ledger is the key element here as Classic Silver issues maintain a fighting stance as gains and losses are at a virtual draw. Classic Gold finally sports a win as the popular 1903 Jefferson/LA Purchase $1 takes a higher $1,525 Bid in MS64. Yet, this victory is overshadowed by a handful of the 11-piece contingent losing further ground. Modern Gold $5 Commems are currently experiencing a similar fate.

TYPE: No surprise here as various early classic Type material responds to dealers' fervent demand. High-Grade Coppers roll as 1793 Chain and Wreath Large Cents muscle higher. Leading the volley, Chain Cents are linked to an impressive $5K charge as MS60 specimens take $72,500. Interestingly only one example has been certified by PCGS/NGC in MS60 with 22 warranting a loftier designation. Silver issues finds the popular one-year Type 1796 Draped Bust Small Eagle Quarters taking flight to $60K in MS60 and the majestic Small Eagle Draped Bust Half Dimes are on the rise to $15K in MS63.

GOLD: Gold Spot continues to glitter yet much higher end Gold Type are absorbing minus signs as buyers are yet to grant a full vote of confidence on their behalf. For now the bullion related issues are wearing rally caps as most in this corner reflect modest gains.

The weekly COIN DEALER newsletter (the Greysheet) reports the national Dealer-to-Dealer wholesale coin market, monitoring all possible transactions and offers to buy and sell coins sight–seen. The coins may be certified or "raw" (uncertified), but the grading MUST ADHERE to the current leading standard. Prices reported derive from the highest legitimate Bids and lowest legitimate Asks seen nationally; they do not necessarily reflect the levels at which any particular dealer might offer to buy or sell that coin. Bids reported consider activity in the certified sight–unseen market, which already include consideration of certification costs. Bids for a sight–seen "raw" coin may be higher or lower than for a sight–unseen certified coin due to current market conditions. The CDN may not change Bid due to the bidding adjustments of the high bidder, but will be strongly influenced by Buys which are higher or Sells which are lower than current Bid/Ask levels. INVESTOR/COLLECTOR NOTE: The prices in this newsletter are from Dealer-to-Dealer transactions; you should expect to pay a premium above Ask when purchasing coins in a retail transaction; you may also commission a Dealer for your purchases.

DO IT FOR THE MONEY!

But You'll Come Back Because Of Our Service, Knowledge, and Integrity

Spectrum Numismatics was formed in 1991 with a unique vision. Spectrum's vision was to be a coin company with world-class rare coin experts, unlimited cash resources, and a loyal customer base. Spectrum knew the way to keep people coming back time and time again was to treat them fairly, service them efficiently, and pay them the most money for their coins.

Money and skill are probably why people come to Spectrum in the first place. But our service and integrity are why they come back again and again and again.....

Why does Spectrum pay more than any other dealer for U.S. rare coins? What's the catch? There's actually no catch at all – it's just a wise business decision. Spectrum is one of the largest coin dealerships in the world and has lots of coin hungry clients. Spectrum literally must either buy your coins or lose its clients. That's why Spectrum will pay outrageously high prices for your coins and that's why they make it so easy for you to get the cash.

The time to get the cash is now. Call Spectrum with assurance and let us help you realize the most money for your coins. Give us an opportunity to serve you by calling toll-free 888.828.2646. Call Spectrum today.

...a Friday morning report on the Coin Market

GOLD HITS 11-MONTH HIGH FRESH MATERIAL SOUGHT IN SANTA CLARA

The Market in Depth

Activity within the rare coin market continues at a strong pace as we plow through April. It seems that even though many dealers were expecting a let-up in the action it's just not happening. Income tax pressure, gas hikes and the like have not managed to quell the demand. This sustained activity may be credited to the strength demonstrated in the precious metals. Gold hit an 11-month high in New York trading when Spot jumped to $691 per ounce before giving up some ground. Silver has been gaining its share of the action by hitting the $14 per ounce level as well. This bullish trading in metals has kept dealers busy answering the phone and questions of would-be customers. Several dealers are still looking to gain a handle on the specific needs for their regular clients before the next round of coin shows and auctions.

By now, many dealers have already arrived in California to attend the Santa Clara Coin and Collectibles Expo and the Santa Clara Elite Coin Auction by Superior Galleries. Expectations for this show and auction are similar to what dealers have been telling us for some time. They are cautiously optimistic but at the same time they are realistic as well. They are hoping to find some fresh material along with any interesting rare coins that they encounter. Key dates of all denominations will be heavily sought-after in Santa Clara. In many respects, these keys have appreciated significantly in recent years but the huge swell of demand has been able to keep levels high. Buyers are continually enamored with finest known examples for the date and are willing to pay huge premiums to secure this material. Registry sets are still hot commodities and dealers are assisting those serious collectors in their quest to achieve success.

The ongoing need for fresh, interesting and original material by dealers and collectors still remains unsatisfied. Many turn to large public auctions in an attempt to be successful because they know that this is usually ground zero for these coins. Strong overhanging demand is growing as want lists continue to contain many dates and varieties that are sorely needed by serious collectors. Unfortunately we are seeing more and more of these coins being taken off the market and put away. If this trend continues we could expect the prices of this material to continue to push even higher. On the flip side, premiums offered for numismatic Silver and Gold coins of all denominations above its melt value remains relatively small. The market seems tentative right now as nervous investors weigh their options carefully. Dealers are being prudently careful not to get stuck holding too many bullion related coins as they are well aware that dramatic price swings both up and down can occur at almost anytime.

This Week's Market

CENTS THIRU HALVES: Early Jefferson rolls command buyers' attention as a key to the series, 1942D powers to $1,775. A surging Silver Spot necessitates an adjustment within the bullion dependent. Unc Kennedy Halves 2002 to date are on the move as buyers raise the ante by as much as 15% to secure them.

MERCURY DIMES: Merces are picking up renewed interest as dealers crank up the Bids for volumes of Full Banded material as MS65 FB commoners move up a notch to $40. Several early and scarcer players are also in the mix, greeting us with more visible buyer support at current levels.

WALKING LIBERTY HALVES: Walkers are not ready for a marathon by any stretch as most continue to plod away at a moderate pace. Yet anxious buyers are training their eyes on a pair of tougher entries from the 30s as they look to catch the 1936S topping $740 in Gem and the late date key, 1938D in like grade taking the fast track to $1,320.

DOLLARS: Some Morgans are still reflecting minor adjustments here and there yet a surge is brewing for many generic and better offerings in Choice and higher condition. Buyers continue to target bright white minimally abraded examples for clients and inventory. Peace Dollars still have gusto as the propensity of demand is following mostly better-dated MS63s that appear to have room to grow. Proof likes are making some noise as 1973S 40% brown box examples take a 10% advance to $22 and thunder was heard as a PCGS PR70DC 1976 S Type 1 clad specimen claimed $20,176 at auction.

PROOF SETS AND MINT SETS: Proof Sets and Mint Sets are indeed the marvels of numismatic manufacture and as supporting Bids for both sides strengthens perhaps the long awaited catalyst to ignite them is close at hand.

COMMEMORATIVES: Activity remains strong surrounding the Classic Silver contingent as advances muscle ahead of those few declining. Texas Type in Gem and the likes of the Wisconsin and York each look at the higher end district in MS66. A host of other popular examples in various grades are also on the move. Unfortunately, there is no element of surprise within the 11-piece Classic Gold ensemble as this group is still wearing thin.

TYPE: Buyers confirm that the extremely popular and short-lived Flying Eagles Cents are taking flight as MS60 and MS63 examples of this scarce species claim $240 and $505 respectively. Proof Type reveals that the Christian Gobrecht designed Liberty Seated Dimes with Legend are rising as PR63 top $425. Most other Type material still has waiting homes at current levels when and where it can be found.

GOLD: As Gold Spot knocks loudly on the $700-club door we observe that the only ones really paying attention are once again the more bullion dependent players. Yet this time around a handful not requiring a hearing aid including $5 and $10 Libs in Gem and the popular $10 Indians grading Choice and Very Choice are responding with modest gains.

The weekly COIN DEALER newsletter (the Greysheet) reports the national Dealer-to-Dealer wholesale coin market, monitoring all possible transactions and offers to buy and sell coins sight-seen. The coins may be certified or "raw" (uncertified), but the grading MUST ADHERE to the current leading standard. Prices reported derive from the highest legitimate Bids and lowest legitimate Asks seen nationally; they do not necessarily reflect the levels at which any particular dealer might offer to buy or sell that coin. Bids reported consider activity in the certified sight-unseen market, which already include consideration of certification costs. Bids for a sight-seen "raw" coin may be higher or lower than for a sight-unseen certified coin due to current market conditions. The CDN may not change Bid due to the bidding adjustments of the high bidder, but will be strongly influenced by Buys which are higher or Sells which are lower than current Bid/Ask levels. INVESTOR/COLLECTOR NOTE: The prices in this newsletter are from Dealer-to-Dealer transactions; you should expect to pay a premium above Ask when purchasing coins in a retail transaction; you may also commission a Dealer for your purchases.

BU ROLLS

The following prices are for typical rolls of the dates involved. In the Lincoln series, spotted or otherwise inferior rolls are worth less than listed prices and "gem" rolls often bring more. In the Jefferson series, some of the rolls in the late 50's tend to be dark—these bring lower prices. "gem, full steps" rolls (when available) bring higher prices. In the Mercury series, "gem" full bands" rolls are worth more than listed prices—particularly the pre-1941 issues. Washington rolls—dull or "put together" bring lower prices. Gem full strike Walking Liberty rolls (particularly the S-mint issues) are worth more than listed prices. M5-65 singles may be found in the MONTHLY SUPPLEMENT. Mercury & Walker singles are in the CDN.

...a Friday morning report on the Coin Market

ACCEPTING THE PAUCITY OF NICE COINS

HIGHER BIDS GENERATED FROM SOLID DEMAND

The Market in Depth

This Week's Market

Dealer's inability to easily locate, negotiate and buy the caliber of rare coins for their customers is why the bull market continues to prosper. The true scarcity of the exceptionally rare material continues to produce higher Bids as the collector base expands. This situation is exacerbated by the greater understanding of today's collectors and their willingness to take these prizes off the market for an undetermined amount of time. These deep pocket buyers are waiting in the wings just hoping for an opportunity to add one or more high quality and original specimens to their collections. However the key to being successful may be convincing some customers to exercise their patience and provide alternative choices of rarities that are available now. Consequently if an insufficient amount of fresh coins and rare dates to meet the demand continues to progress, then it is easy to see why Bids may escalate to even greater levels.

This shortage of nice material was readily evident at the Santa Clara Expo that was held April 19-22. Dealers were a bit disappointed in that they said the show was a little on the "slow side". It was also apparent that several of the major dealers were "no shows" in Santa Clara. Many dealers were actually surprised that the show was not more active. Expectations were running high prior to the Expo and Gold and Silver bullion remained strong throughout. One dealer said that the light turnout may have been because the show took place right after tax season. This would corroborate reports of fewer retail sales than were expected. Also, on a wholesale level, it was observed that a few dealers were more intent on selling rare coins than buying. Some may have opted to not even bother looking because of the continued lack of fresh material on the bourse at Santa Clara, and in the general marketplace. At a show like this, one can usually expect to find an accumulation of fresh material along with an original collection or two being offered for sale for the first time, but you just don't see that as much anymore.

Superior Galleries				Price
Date	Denomination	Grade		Realized
1916-D	Mercury Dime	NGC	MS61	$12,075
1895	Morgan Dollar	ANACS	PR55	$29,325

Several dealers still managed to complete a successful Santa Clara show despite the many obstacles. They believe that the overall market is still good as they have clients just waiting to buy, even at higher levels. Unfortunately it remains extremely difficult to find those coins necessary to complete transactions.

The Santa Clara Elite Coin Auction conducted by Superior realized just under $1 million. Here are a few of its highlights.

MERCURY DIMES: Mercs remain in an enviable position as most material has buyers present at or near existing levels. Indeed few series can offer the scope that Ms. Winged Liberty does; where else can a collector acquire an obsolete Choice Mint State U.S. Silver coin that is over 60 years old for under $10?

WALKING LIBERTY HALVES: Walkers are in need of guidance and a helping hand as several more from the 30's on are mired down with further setbacks in Gem. The good news is that these declines are modest and visible support continues to cling to many from the early years as well as for those popular entries within the short-set.

DOLLARS: High grade Carson City material and over 3 dozen dazzling DMPL's are the major players as the resurgent Morgan market picks up steam. A healthy pocketbook and patience will be required to snare one of the handful of MS65 1889CC's as Bid powers some $25K higher topping $275K. The tough last year of the "CC" contingent 1893CC also advances once more as a solid 15% boost propels Gem specimens to $57,500. Peace Dollars though quiet are very stable as supporting Bids are comforting most Mint State examples. Fans of "Blue" lkes are also receiving some good news as NGC has announced a new wrap around certification holder for the GSA sealed specimens.

PROOF SETS AND MINT SETS: Mint Sets are the flavor of choice as a baker's dozen displays Bids wafting higher. Leading the pack is the scarce inaugural 1947 issue taking a $50 advance to $1,075. Proof Sets on the other hand don't mirror the enthusiasm as several from the 1990's on drift a bit lower.

COMMEMORATIVES: A more rounded base of support is once again returning to the popular classic Silver Commems. Several in the line-up are needed as the Elgin carries a pair of higher offers in MS65-MS66 as does the proud Texas Type and Sets. This spring flurry is rounded out by Wisconsin and York's triumphant sortie in MS66 garnering $505 and $445 respectively. Unfortunately, much of the Classic Gold ensemble remains on the sellers' shelf with several more reduced hoping to entice bargain hunters.

TYPE: Securing problem-free Type at competitive levels remains a major concern for many dealers. To combat this some buyers have seen fit to raise the ante to perhaps spring a few loose that remain on their want lists. Popular Two Cent pieces grading MS64 Red still appear undervalued even at the increased $530 Bid. Trade Dollars in mid grade are also active as MS63 examples claim $1,950. Proof Type feature the ever-popular Liberty Seated Dollars with Motto rising to $2,800 in PR63.

GOLD: Concerns by some adversaries remain; yet motivated by a deepening widespread optimism for higher levels buyers are cautiously capitulating. Desire for advanced Gold Type is also evident as the collector favorite $5 Indians beat a path with a triple Bid jump in MS62-MS64 and the popular Type 1 Liberty Head Dollars continue to advance, now Bid $850 in Choice.

The Bid prices listed within represent what individual dealers are willing to pay for coins that meet their particular grading criteria. Coins graded by other dealers or grading services, such as PCGS, NCI, ANACS, NGC, and any other services may not conform to the grading standards as interpreted by the dealer or dealers whose bid is represented within. Therefore, a specific coin could be worth more or less than the listed Bid price. For the Bid prices of coins certified by ANACS, NCI, PCGS, and NGC please refer to the Certified Coin Dealer newsletter.

STAMPEDE!

Dillon Gage Metals' vast selection of coins, from rare to current collectibles, might seem...overwhelming! But don't worry; our experienced coin wranglers can help you manage the herd, whether you're an old hand at trading or a tenderfoot.

With our world-wide network of collectors and estate liquidation connections, we round-up even the most elusive coins for our customers.

Of course, Dillon Gage is home on more than the numismatics range. Our diverse services include:

- Precious Metals Bullion Trading & Market Making
- Real Time Online Precious Metals Trading (FizTrade™)
- Specialty Minting
- Rolexes and other Fine Swiss Watch Trading & Sales
- Estate Liquidations
- Precious Metals Refining
 - 48-hour turn-around on higher grade materials
 - Ranging from low grade sweeps to karat gold
 - Specialists in Stone Removal
- Authorized Assayers for the Jewelers Vigilance Comm.

. . .a Friday morning report on the Coin Market

CSNS SHOW UP NEXT IN ST. LOUIS

BETTER MATERIAL REMAINS DIFFICULT TO FIND

The Market in Depth

May begins with both optimism and some concerns about the rare coin market and its ability to maintain its bullish status. The overall coin market can be broken down into specific segments for analysis. These market segments include: collector coins, rarities, generics, and moderns. So while most dealers agree that collector material including key and semi-key date coins remains very strong they are not as positive for the other segments. Yes, the market for rarities continues to be heated yet prices are extremely high for the small amount of original coins currently available. Generic and bullion related material is softening right now. Weaker precious metals' prices are only part of the problem as tax season is also claiming its share of the blame. Type Gold has drifted a bit lower as Asking prices drop in sync with Gold Spot. Modern bullion products are also on the decline as dealers shift their focus towards procuring available funds for the onslaught of new upcoming Mint offerings. Many of the usual buyers of generic Dollars are facing some liquidity problems and consequently these are among the first coins to suffer. Common date Morgan and Peace Dollars in both Circulated and Mint State condition are likely targets. Several dealers have come to expect some sort of a temporary slow down in this market's pace and believe that a short pause will not be detrimental to the existing bull market, rather a much needed period of reorganization.

Most major dealers are currently preparing to attend the Central States Numismatic Society convention and associated auctions that will be held in St. Louis May 8-12. Bowers and Merena will host their sale May 8th while Heritage conducts its auction May 9-12. Even though this convention is geographically located in the center of our nation, for whatever reason, the downtown location has been notorious for weak public attendance. Still, dealers realize that the CSNS is major show that should not be overlooked if they hope to buy some material that is so desperately needed for their customers. One east coast dealer we spoke with says he plans on buying but will be more selective because his cash flow has slowed down. However, this won't stop him from Bidding aggressively if a big deal comes his way as he would just borrow the money. Many areas of the market are believed to be undervalued today and these are the areas realizing increased interest. That's why the want lists continue to go unfulfilled despite repeated Bid increases. One dealer said that he believes that Liberty Seated coinage of the 1860s is very undervalued and tough to locate. This is especially true of the Quarters and Half Dollars in Good thru XF. The majority of these dates are safely tucked-away in collections. He said, "since Liberty Seated material isn't traded as frequently as other areas their price tends to be kept down." He added, "semi-key Lincoln Cents are hot!" This is another collector area of the market that's under strain as buyers anxiously look to add these better dates to their collections at even higher levels.

This Week's Market

CENTS THRU HALVES: Early Lincoln Coppers remain red hot as sundry examples from 1934 on experience great demand and roll higher. The key to the Roosevelt Dime series 1949S rolls take a $100 push to $1,850 Bid.

MERCURY DIMES: Dealers are avidly searching for problem-free examples of the keys such as the 1916D and the pair of 1921 issues in all grades and generally take what they can find at or above Bid. Hoping to satisfy collectors' demand, the ongoing quest to acquire volumes of common material within the Full Banded designation also continues unabated at current levels.

WALKING LIBERTY HALVES: Two of the proud rarities within Ms Walking Liberty's ensemble; the 1919 and 1921 each drift a bit lower in MS65 and MS64 respectively. The short-set remains a stable entity, not only sporting an advance as the 1941D climbs to $165 in Gem but one eager buyer is looking for several Choice sets at Bid.

DOLLARS: Morgans are one of those series whose popularity will see it through most any situation. Currently Bids are slightly lower for generic examples in MS65-MS66 while the inaugural 1878S ascends to $6,250 in MS67. Peace Dollars are quiet once again yet the fortitude of visible support remains highly viable.

PROOF SETS AND MINT SETS: Several late date Proof Sets continue to be relegated to lower levels yet demand for most early and mid issues is strengthening as most have buyers available at or near Bid. Mint Sets reflect a stalemate as a pair of modest gains targeting the 1961 and 1962 Silver Sets offset a pair of minor setbacks.

COMMEMORATIVES: Classic Silver Commems have long been a staple on many enthusiasts' want lists. Now as their popularity and momentum drive a baker's dozen higher we also spot several scarcer entries reflecting minor losses. Some hidden values could be lurking here as the likes of Grant, Monroe, Pan-Pac and others retreat. As an example: the 1893 Columbian Half rolling back to $630 in MS65 is coincidentally, marking its lowest Greysheet Bid level since April 1999. On the other hand the Classic Gold box office is still open yet higher offers for any of the 11-piece ensemble remain hard to find.

TYPE: Something is always going on here. This report, the hunt is on to secure Morgan Dollars in desirous dazzling Proof format as this lovely lady makes a move to $4,700 in Gem Proof. A throng of buyers are also choosy, as they chase after popular budget-minded collector coins as Flying Eagle Cents, Two Cent pieces and the ever in demand Capped Bust Halves each register higher offers in multiple Circ grades.

GOLD: As the golden fiddler sees Spot prices bow back, those tied to her mrciless tune cavalierly follow. Yet there are several apparently marching to a different melody as a handful of scarcer material grading MS60 makes a move to higher ground. In Choice we spot $5 Indians drumming higher and yet another advance is following Type I Gold Dollars as they top $880.

The weekly COIN DEALER newsletter (the Greysheet) reports the national Dealer-to-Dealer wholesale coin market, monitoring all possible transactions and offers to buy and sell coins sight-seen. The coins may be certified or "raw" (uncertified), but the grading MUST ADHERE to the current leading standard. Prices reported derive from the highest legitimate Bids and lowest legitimate Asks seen nationally; they do not necessarily reflect the levels at which any particular dealer might offer to buy or sell that coin. Bids reported consider activity in the certified sight-unseen market, which already include consideration of certification costs. Bids for a sight-seen "raw" coin may be higher or lower than for a sight-unseen certified coin due to current market conditions. The CDN may not change Bid due to the bidding adjustments of the high bidder, but will be strongly influenced by Buys which are higher or Sells which are lower than current Bid/Ask levels. INVESTOR/COLLECTOR NOTE: The prices in this newsletter are from Dealer-to-Dealer transactions; you should expect to pay a premium above Ask when purchasing coins in a retail transaction; you may also commission a Dealer for your purchases.

The Bid prices listed within represent what individual dealers are willing to pay for coins that meet their particular grading criteria. Coins graded by other dealers or grading services, such as PCGS, NCI, ANACS, NGC and any other services may not conform to the grading standards as interpreted by the dealer or dealers whose bid is represented within. Therefore, a specific coin could be worth more or less than the listed Bid price. BU ROLLS

The following prices are for typical rolls of the dates involved. In the Lincoln series, spotted or otherwise inferior rolls are worth less than listed prices and "gem" rolls often bring more. In the Jefferson series, some of the rolls in the late '50's tend to be dark—these bring lower prices; "gem, full steps" rolls (when available) bring higher prices. In the Mercury series, "gem, full bands" rolls are worth more than listed prices—particularly the pre-1941 issues. Washington rolls—dull or "put together" bring lower prices. Gem full strike Walking Liberty rolls (particularly the 5-mint issues) are worth more than listed prices. M5-65 singles may be found in the MONTHLY SUPPLEMENT; Mercury & Walker singles are in the CDN.

DEMAND INCREASES FOR SEMI-KEYS

1794 DOLLAR SLATED FOR GARDEN STATE AUCTION

The Market in Depth

Most major dealers are in St. Louis attending PNG Day May 9 before the highly anticipated CSNS show May 10-12. Avid and knowledgeable collectors from the heartland of America are also expected to attend in hopes of finding a few missing pieces for their sets. The market continues to demonstrate amazing demand for quality rare coins because the supply is still unable to meet the huge demand that continues to grow. Interest and strong Bids throughout the year have been instrumental in pushing many key date coins to extraordinary levels. The defining statement of this explosive demand was exemplified April 25 by the record $5 million paid by one California collector for a 1913 Liberty Head Nickel. Bruce Morelan and Laura Sperber of Legend Numismatics sold the Eliasberg example graded PR66 by PCGS to a client of dealer Ron Gillio. The new owner has been described as a gentleman and a true collector that was almost overwhelmed with excitement when the flawless transaction took place. He said that this coin would probably remain in his family forever as he comes from a long line of collectors.

Classic rarities and key dates consume most of the attention from the numismatic world, primarily because of their rarity, history, celebrity and price. Consequently it is not too difficult to see why so many of the keys have seen their Bids climb precipitously during this sustained bull market. Those savvy buyers of key dates have quietly been putting a portion of their funds into the lesser unheralded dates that fly below the radar. Several of these semi-keys of many series offer potentially, exceptionally strong value. These are the coins where one can spend a reasonable dollar amount while retaining an excellent rare coin. However ultimately, experience and a sound grading eye may make the difference between success and failure. The Morgan Dollar series has been one area of the market that's attracting this kind of Bidding. Deep Mirror Prooflike examples of many dates in the series are realizing strong demand. This interest has been evident for many months and the true rarity of these dates in quality condition is why demand has yet to be satisfied. Of course many other areas of the market also have a story to tell about better, under-appreciated dates. Those dealers who are able to obtain these coins for their customers usually benefit far beyond its single sale. Repeat customers are an extremely important ingredient towards having a well-satisfied client-base that continues to pay dividends down the road.

New World Rarities of Hauppauge, New York will be conducting an auction May 18 in conjunction with the May 17-19 Garden State Numismatic Association show in Somerset, NJ. Some highlights from the upcoming sale are listed herein.

This Week's Market

MERCURY DIMITES: Although no plus signs are offered up in this report the favorable conditions still surround most Mercs. As the hunt continues for scarcer material in all grades and volumes of late date Full-Banded examples, buyers are scouring the landscape to fill vacancies in their inventories.

WALKING LIBERTY HALVES: Walkers remain motivated as renewed strength for many of the later issues is evident. Several from the popular short-set are rallying in Gem as the key, 1941S claims $810. Buyers for several of the tough early players are once again visible as increased support here attempts to pry a select item or two free.

DOLLARS: With generic Morgan Gems rolling back a bit to $114 Bid, DMPL's are this week's show stoppers. At least one aggressive buyer is targeting three dozen of the scarce and ultra rare within this coveted designation. Among the non-mirror class, a classic western rarity, 1889 CC powers to $42,500 in MS64. With a combined PCGS/NGC population of 63 siblings within the regular Mint State category this higher Bid may bring one to market. A few Peace Dollar keys are needed to unlock some buyers' want lists as the 1924S makes noise in MS64 and MS65. Believed to be underrated, 1927 and 27S each make a push in Very Choice.

PROOF SETS AND MINT SETS: Perhaps a bit surprisingly the lion's share of Proof Sets are sporting multiple offers at or very near Bid. This positive influence continues as four more edge upward. Mint Sets too, have reason to boast as handful inch higher with no set-backs observed.

COMMEMORATIVES: Always a collector's favorite, this slice of historic numismatic Americana has more than its share of ardent followers. As a measure of stability returns, we note that many classic Silver examples are desired in premium grades. Yet, the still in demand Booker T Washington and Washington Carver sets are the energetic ones, posting another flurry of increased action in MS60. A silent response from the 11 piece classic Gold ensemble actually speaks volumes as a few are rewarded with renewed buyer support.

TYPE: Dealers' want lists are chock full of Type and are expanding further as high end Silver Cartwheels take center stage. The chase is on for Proof Seated Dollars as No Motto's claim higher Bids of $3,500 and $5,000 in PR63 and PR64 respectively. Mint State Seated Dollars with Motto counterpart's power to $5,300 in MS64 and Trade Dollars in like grade get a lift to $3,500. If this weren't enough, the exquisite Flowing Hair Dollars are under intense pressure and buyers have pulled the trigger as MS64's top $150K and tantalizing MS65's race to an impressive $280K. Good luck reeling the latter one in, other than the ultra rare 1794, PCGS/NGC have only certified ten 1795's in Gem and a scant 3 higher.

GOLD: Confidence may not be running high in all circles; yet as Gold Spot attempts to break through to the $700 club buyers may not want to loose sight of the ever-tightening spreads below. Higher Bids remain intact for MS63 Gold Dollars, Type One and Type Three examples are each needed in quantity. Ten Dollar Indians also remain in heated demand as another round of increases looks to secure some.

The weekly COIN DEALER newsletter (the Greysheet) reports the national Dealer-to-Dealer wholesale coin market, monitoring all possible transactions and offers to buy and sell coins sight-seen. The coins may be certified or "raw" (uncertified), but the grading MUST ADHERE to the current leading standard. Prices reported derive from the highest legitimate Bids and lowest legitimate Asks seen nationally; they do not necessarily reflect the levels at which any particular dealer might offer to buy or sell that coin. Bids reported consider activity in the certified sight-unseen market, which already include consideration of certification costs. Bids for a sight-seen "raw" coin may be higher or lower than for a sight-unseen certified coin due to current market conditions. The CDN may not change Bid due to the bidding adjustments of the high bidder, but will be strongly influenced by Buys which are higher or Sells which are lower than current Bid/Ask levels. INVESTOR/COLLECTOR NOTE: The prices in this newsletter are from Dealer-to-Dealer transactions; you should expect to pay a premium above Ask when purchasing coins in a retail transaction; you may also commission a Dealer for your purchases.

The Bid prices listed within represent what individual dealers are willing to pay for coins that meet their particular grading criteria. Coins graded by other dealers or grading services, such as PCGS, NCI, ANACS, NGC, and any other services may not conform to the grading standards as interpreted by the dealer or dealers whose bid is represented within. Therefore, a specific coin could be worth more or less than the listed bid price. For listed Bid prices of coins certified by ANACS, NCI, PCGS, and NGC, please refer to the Certified Coin Dealer newsletter.

	BID	ASK	BID	ASK	BID	ASK	BID	ASK	BID	ASK	BID	ASK	Numbers are used as shorthand for adjectival grading. The following descriptions are used throughout the CDN to designate the exact quality of Brilliant Uncirculated coins. Grade descriptions do not necessarily apply to modern government issues because they are handled more carefully when minted; therefore, they are all usually high grades.

...a Friday morning report on the Coin Market

DEALERS REMAIN UPBEAT ABOUT MARKET

CSNS AUCTION REALIZES $17.7 MILLION

The Market in Depth

Dealers attending the Central States Numismatic Society show in St. Louis May 10-12 were surprised by the strong attendance. One even said that at times, the bourse looked crowded. Most dealers were in agreement that it was a relatively active show generating both wholesale and retail transactions. Many dealers were at the convention primarily to buy coins and they weren't shy about it either. However, they did tell us that it was an extremely difficult task to locate and complete transactions. These dealers have sophisticated and very discriminating collectors that want to buy coins but they are quite fussy about quality and originality. Pleasing today's customers is even more difficult because supplies of this material are insufficient to meet the demand. Nevertheless, dealers are still looking for fresh coins and will turn away from those coins that have problems or that have been "played-with". If a particular date is needed bad enough some clients will give the go-ahead to buy it anyway, albeit at severely reduced levels. Most knowledgeable collectors would much rather wait until a nice premium quality example is located and are willing to pay-up in order to be the lucky new owner.

Another dealer said the show was "surprisingly good" and he was quite pleased with his results as he was able to buy a decent amount of collector coins on the bourse. He was also happy with his sales because some coins that sold had been in his inventory for quite some time. He seems to think that there is a new trend in the market as collectors are reaching a little more for 18th and 19th century material. In all, a few dealers were able to buy some "good stuff" but there weren't too many bargains taking place on the bourse, or at auction. Richard Nachbar conducted a sealed Bid offering of 37 lots in St. Louis that sold for $846,561. This was a fresh deal consisting of many low-pop rarities and so the average price realized of $22,800 per lot is understandable. A PCGSM562 1795 $5 Small Eagle took top honors at $123,000. A PCGS MS66 $20 High Relief, Wire Rim claimed $85,250 while a PCGS PR66 1859 $2.50 Liberty finished at $72,507. The official CSNS 2007 Convention coin auction by Heritage realized $17.7 million May 9-12 in St. Louis.

This Week's Market

CENTS THRU HALVES: Buyers just can't seem to get enough early Lincoln Cents or Jefferson Nickels. Over 20 Lincoln rolls from 1934-48 flash higher offers and not to be out maneuvered early Jefferson rolls counter with 14 gains of their own.

MERCURY DIMES: For a series that is quiet on the subject of raised Bids Ms. Winged Liberty is still making a lot of noise. Solid demand finds many of the current class awaiting homes at or near current levels.

WALKING LIBERTY HALVES: Another mighty oak in the Walker's forest has been beset with a set back as the proud 1921D drifts to $13,500 in MS64. The zip and passion, though limited, seems to be following the short-set as the 1944D musters the only gain here as Gems record a $160 Bid.

DOLLARS: The 1878S, which has been on the move the last few reports leads the way here, muscling to $7,500 in MS67. This powerful $1,000 advance will attempt to pry a few of the combined family of 49 PCGS/NGC graded as such into new quarters. The popular 1882CC in like grade is the recipient of a $500 jump in an effort to corral a few. DMPLs are seen bounding ever higher as a well-known buyer has his eyes trained on those next to impossible to locate rarities in MS64DMPL and MS65DMPL. Peace Dollars are relatively quiet yet stability cloaks the majority with standing offers at or near current Bids.

PROOF SETS AND MINT SETS: Not anything to shout about yet, however Proof Sets appear to be quietly conspiring to make some headway as Bid increased modestly. Mint Sets too, appear to be fortified with interest at present levels as pair nudge a bit higher.

COMMEMORATIVES: Classic Silver issues reveal a handful of better entries rolling back. This is not all that surprising as many dealers look to shore up their finances with quick sales to help subsidize the ongoing auction circuit as well as the fast approaching western junket. Conversely the infatuation with the Booker T Washington and Washington Carver sets is evident as is the immediate need for the popular 1925 California Jubilee as buyers are lined up across-the-board. Classic Gold is resting comfortably for a change, yet visible Bids for the 11-piece entourage are absent for the most part.

TYPE: Proof Copper remains red hot as every color combo within Indian Cents, Lincoln Cents and Two Cent pieces are leaving a trail of strong supporting Bids as buyers search the landscape for desirable examples. Silver Proof Type delivers a solid assault levied for both Liberty Seated Halves in PR63 and better. An elevated offer for the in demand Charles E Barber Halves reflects the immediate need as attractive PR63 examples top $860.

GOLD: Gold Spot's precipitous drop since our last report has obviously spooked a few of the faithful. In addition to minus signs for the bullion dependent several of the better Gold Types have found that their sponsors have abandoned them. Yet as the yellow metal has met resistance in attempting to clear the next hurdle a few holdouts buck the system as Type III Dollars in MS62 and $10 Indians grading MS60 muster minor advances.

The weekly COIN DEALER newsletter (the Greysheet) reports the national Dealer–to–Dealer wholesale coin market, monitoring all possible transactions and offers to buy and sell coins sight–seen. The coins may be certified or "raw" (uncertified), but the grading MUST ADHERE to the current leading standard. Prices reported derive from the highest legitimate Bids and lowest legitimate Asks seen nationally; they do not necessarily reflect the levels at which any particular dealer might offer to buy or sell that coin. Bids reported consider activity in the certified sight–unseen market, which already include consideration of certification costs. Bids for a sight–seen "raw" coin may be higher or lower than for a sight–unseen certified coin due to current market conditions. The CDN may not change Bid due to the bidding adjustments of the high bidder, but will be strongly influenced by Buys which are higher or Sells which are lower than current Bid/Ask levels. INVESTOR/COLLECTOR NOTE: The prices in this newsletter are from Dealer–to–Dealer transactions; you should expect to pay a premium above Ask when purchasing coins in a retail transaction; you may also commission a Dealer for your purchases.

The Bid prices listed within represent what individual dealers are willing to pay for coins that meet their particular grading criteria. Coins graded by other dealers or grading services, such as PCGS, NCI, ANACS, NGC, and any other services may not conform to the grading standards as interpreted by the dealer or dealers whose bid is represented within. Therefore, a specific coin could be worth more or less than the listed Bid price. For listed Bid prices of coins certified by ANACS, NCI, PCGS, and NGC please refer to the Certified Coin Dealer newsletter.

BU ROLLS

The following prices are for typical rolls of the dates involved. In the Lincoln series, spotted or otherwise inferior rolls are worth less than listed prices and "gem" rolls often bring more. In the Jefferson series, some of the rolls in the late 50's tend to be dark—these bring lower prices; "gem, full steps" rolls (when available) bring higher prices. In the Mercury series, "gem, full bands" rolls are worth more than listed prices—particularly the pre-1941 issues. Washington rolls—dull or "put together" bring lower prices. Gem roll strike Walking Liberty rolls (particularly the S-mint issues) are worth more than listed prices. MS-65 singles may be found in the MONTHLY SUPPLEMENT. Mercury & Walker singles are in the CDN.

STAMPEDE!

Dillon Gage Metals' vast selection of coins, from rare to current collectibles, might seem...overwhelming! But don't worry; our experienced coin wranglers can help you manage the herd, whether you're an old hand at trading or a tenderfoot.

With our world-wide network of collectors and estate liquidation connections, we round-up even the most elusive coins for our customers.

Of course, Dillon Gage is home on more than the numismatics range. Our diverse services include:

- Precious Metals Bullion Trading & Market Making
- Real Time Online Precious Metals Trading (FizTrade™)
- Specialty Minting
- Rolexes and other Fine Swiss Watch Trading & Sales
- Estate Liquidations
- Precious Metals Refining
 - 48-hour turn-around on higher grade materials
 - Ranging from low grade sweeps to karat gold
 - Specialists in Stone Removal
- Authorized Assayers for the Jewelers Vigilance Comm.

...a Friday morning report on the Coin Market

ACTIVE EXPO ANTICIPATED

SUPERIOR AUCTION CLAIMS $1.57 MILLION

The Market in Depth

Select areas of the rare coin market are still receiving strong demand from a growing number of collectors. The latter stages of May and early June are shaping up to be very active as the Pre-Long Beach auctions in Beverly Hills conclude. Dealers are increasingly anxious to begin work at the highly anticipated Long Beach Expo, and auction by Heritage. Most dealers, already in California, have come to the golden state with solid expectations that their time will be well spent and will return home satisfied after completing a successful trip. However, this success will not come easy and many of today's dealers know that they will have to work long hours, both viewing auction lots and working the bourse if they hope to have a profitable show. Their expectations are sound despite the June show usually being the slowest of the three Long Beach Expos held each year. That's because they know that the month is ending with powerful demand for rare coins that possess better than average eye appeal. Naturally, these coins that are virtually problem-free and lean towards the higher end of its grade range will receive the strongest offers. Of course there are a number of collectors looking for coins that offer originality but they need those coins to also yield nice eye appeal. Add a pleasing strike to this list and you have most of the ingredients that dealers will be searching for in California, both at public auction and on the bourse in Long Beach. Unfortunately some dealers believe that they will have to look at hundreds of coins before they find the one they want. Once they locate a worthy prospect they only hope that its price is still in range for their customer.

Superior got the auction ball rolling, reeling in $1.57 million in its May 27-28 Pre-Long Beach Elite Coin Auction. The Pre-Long Beach Auction by Ira and Larry Goldberg wasn't completed as of presstime but a few highlights are listed from those lots that had finished.

This Week's Market

CENTS THRU HALVES: Early Lincolns (1934-1942) are blazing hot as buyers can't secure enough rolls from this most popular series. Jefferson Nickels rival much attention from buyers too, as a wealth of material from the inaugural 1938 thru 1952 feature accelerated action.

MERCURY DIMES: Ms Winged Liberty still has numerous suitors at her door as supporting Bids remain in check for the scarce and rare within her elite circle. Yet this report we note that Bids for the lion's share of common Full Banded Gems have been curtailed.

WALKING LIBERTY HALVES: Walkers still remain an enigma to many collectors and a paradox to countless Dealers. Observe as a pair of better dates from the thirties slip in Gem only to view many gaining in Choice within the same time period. On top of this there is marked support at or near Bid for the majority of these attractive pieces from 1935-1947 grading MS63-MS65.

DOLLARS: Morgans once again are hearing the resounding call for DMPLs as over a dozen of these dazzling conditional scarcities and rarities drive higher. Regular surface strikes are revealing a handful of the ever in demand Carson City ensemble inching up combating a handful of better dates minor declinations. Peace Dollars are on the quiet side, yet a pair here are spotted surrendering modest ground.

PROOF SETS AND MINT SETS: This corner is lively and is awash in a wave of increases that have found both Proof and Mint issues. Nothing major as far as dollar amounts yet quite significant in the fact that active Bidders have once again returned to reflect on some, perhaps untapped values.

COMMEMORATIVES: No smooth sailing here as over 2 dozen Classic Silver issues are retreating. Sellers are attempting to generate some quick cash for the various west coast activities and beyond. Minor, yet positive reinforcements attempt to stem the tide as a handful of the popular Booker T Washington and Washington Carver sets continue to move to higher ground in Choice and better The beleaguered 11 piece Gold conclave is still wallowing in dealer indifference as several more experience moderate setbacks. Only the massive and rare Pan-Pac slug duo are displaying true grit here.

TYPE: For the most part Type is living a charmed life as impassioned buyers put out the fervent call for just about anything original and problem-free. As a matter of fact only the Barber Halves have seen their Bids shaved a bit here as MS64 and MS65 examples are now Bid at $1,125 and $2,800 respectively.

GOLD: As Gold Spot drifts a bit lower so does most buyer's immediate enthusiasm. The present slump affects most of the bullion sensitive, yet a few of the better players are stepping up, although none are able to hit a home run. The closest thing is a set of Bid jumps led by the somewhat maligned $3 Princess as MS63 and MS64 examples each get a boost as the latter takes home $6,900.

The weekly COIN DEALER newsletter (the Greysheet) reports the national Dealer-to-Dealer wholesale coin market, monitoring all possible transactions and offers to buy and sell coins sight–seen. The coins may be certified or “raw” (uncertified), but the grading MUST ADHERE to the current leading standard. Prices reported derive from the highest legitimate Bids and lowest legitimate Asks seen nationally; they do not necessarily reflect the levels at which any particular dealer might offer to buy or sell that coin. Bids reported consider activity in the certified sight–unseen market, which already include consideration of certification costs. Bids for a sight–seen “raw” coin may be higher or lower than for a sight–unseen certified coin due to current market conditions. The CDN may not change Bid due to the bidding adjustments of the high bidder, but will be strongly influenced by Buys which are higher or Sells which are lower than current Bid/Ask levels. INVESTOR/COLLECTOR NOTE: The prices in this newsletter are from Dealer-to-Dealer transactions; you should expect to pay a premium above Ask when purchasing coins in a retail transaction; you may also commission a Dealer for your purchases.

The Bid prices listed within represent what individual dealers are willing to pay for coins that meet their particular grading criteria. Coins graded by other dealers or grading services, such as PCGS, NCI, ANACS, NGC, and any other services may not conform to the grading standards as interpreted by the dealer or dealers whose bid is represented within. Therefore a specific coin could be worth more or less than the listed Bid price. For listed Bid prices of coins certified by ANACS, NCI, PCGS, and NGC please refer to the Certified Coin Dealer newsletter.

BU ROLLS

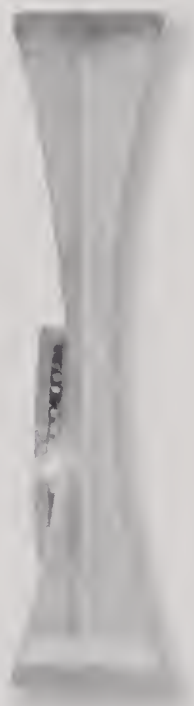

The following prices are for typical rolls of the dates involved. In the Lincoln series, spotted or otherwise inferior rolls are worth less than listed prices and "gem" rolls often bring more. In the Jefferson series, some of the rolls in the late 50's tend to be dark—these bring lower prices; "gem, full steps" rolls (when available) bring higher prices. In the Mercury series, "gem, full bands" rolls are worth more than listed prices—particularly the pre-1941 issues. Washington rolls—dual or "put together" bring lower prices. Green Bull and Walking Liberty rolls (particularly the S-mint issues) are worth more than listed prices. MS-65 singles may be found in the MONTHLY SUPPLEMENT; Mercury & Walker singles are in the CDN.

Digital Coin Grading System

Introducing Our Patented 3-D Upright Coin Holders

The DCGS Difference... With just one look at the 3-D Upright Coin Holder, you will immediately see how revolutionary our unique, patented design is for encapsulating and displaying coins in an upright position. It is the only coin holder that clearly reveals all three sides of the encapsulated coin; the obverse, reverse and edge of every coin. Available to fit most popular coin sizes.

3-D DISPLAY UPRIGHT COIN HOLDER

...a Friday morning report on the Coin Market

EXPO DELIVERS BRISK WHOLESALE TRADING 1921 SAINT GRABS $402,500 AT AUCTION

The Market in Depth

Most dealers that we spoke with on the bourse at the Long Beach Expo were optimistic about today's market and encouraged that the balance of the year should be pretty good. Heritage's Long Beach Signature Auction held May 31-June 1 realized $8.3 million while their Final Session brought another $798,000. This combined with earlier results from Superior, Bowers & Merena and Ira & Larry Goldberg brings the Southern California auction total to $22.7 million. Most Expo participants felt the show was relatively active with plenty of wholesale transactions taking place. Dealers often attend these major shows primarily to buy coins and several that we spoke with were very successful in doing just that. One dealer told us that the show exceeded his expectations even though he was unable to find enough Commemoratives of "nice quality". Also, common date Morgan Dollars were being sought-after on the bourse at their new lower levels. Again, dealers said they were just not able to buy enough of them at these prices. Many of the "nice" coins have already been taken off the market by collectors and it is getting more difficult for dealers to find those attractive and premium quality coins. They are looking for coins with nice eye appeal because today's collectors are very selective. They know what they want and are willing to wait for the right coin before committing serious funds. Key dates were among those coins readily selling on the bourse. Also, it's not only about being Gem quality or even Mint State to be in serious demand. Circulated keys that were attractive for the grade were salable as these are the bread-and-butter coins that are nice to have in one's inventory. Some of the key dates changing hands on the bourse included: a PCGS VG10 1914-D; a PCGS EF45 1872 and PCGS G4 1877 Indian Cent; an 1885 Liberty Nickel in PCGS F12; and an NGC EF40 1893-S Morgan Dollar. These are just a few examples from several transactions witnessed. The bottom line is, "Anything nice brings strong money" as expressed by one dealer. While this show was a huge success wholesale speaking, some said retail sales were light. Another dealer said that his sales were typically on the slow side with it being very hard to buy nice material because it was not available. He touted that he would happily pay "full retail" just to buy exceptionally nice quality rare coins. He was able to pay $1,500 for a PCGS AU55 1955 Doubled Die Lincoln Cent and quickly resold it for $1,700. Still, another wholesale dealer said that things are OK but remain a little bit spotty. He believes that the higher more expensive rare coins are doing really well. Dated Gold and better date Morgan Dollars are moving, albeit slowly. He also pointed out that key dates are still in very strong demand today. A few highlights from the Heritage sale are listed to the right.

Heritage		Price Realized

1915-S	$50 Pan-Pac, Oct	NGC MS65	$100,625

This Week's Market

MERCURY DIMES: Active buyers have eased away for the moment as far as the late date commoners in MS65FB and better are concerned. Focus remains on the acquisition of the elusive and scarce material such as the 1916D which has buyers scurrying for virtually any examples in Circ thru Gem. Value conscious are turning towards semi-better dates in VF as confirmed by a myriad of increases here.

WALKING LIBERTY HALVES: Walker enthusiasts are making a silent statement as strengthening support envelops this attractive series. Active buyers are omnipresent for nearly all dates from the mid 30's on grading Choice through Gem. As the 1944D and 1946S are moving up in the ranks in MS65 time will soon tell whether this is just an aberration.

DOLLARS: Morgan mania may be just around the corner as unquestionable activity has returned here. As many moderately priced collector coins in low to mid Mint State columns are experiencing new demand, generics are also feeling a modest push as MS65's top $114 Bid. DMPLS continue to reflect the spotlight too, as the tougher 1887S races to $2,000 in DMPL63. Peace Dollars remain in strong demand but are keeping a low profile, maintaining their solitude and stability with Bidders.

PROOF SETS AND MINT SETS: Encouraging news from this front once more. Proof Sets are in the midst of a mild rally proudly displaying their gains. Most offerings under siege are still Bid at under $10, leaving plenty of possible potential for further advancement. Mint Sets respond with the 1976 issue inching up as a bevy of active Bidders are in line for most other sets at current levels.

COMMEMORATIVES: As a pair of Washington Carver sets elevate a bit in Choice and Very Choice the ever-popular Classic Silver contingent may be back on track as buyer visibility has improved. Its taken quite some time yet redemption may well be at hand for the Classic Gold ensemble too, as a half dozen are wearing offers at or approaching Bid in MS64 and MS65 with no dissenters. $10 Presidential Spouses will be making their inaugural debut as the U.S. Mint will be offering .9999 fine ½oz. Gold coins on June 19th. Order limits of 5 per household with a maximum mintage of 40,000 per design combined from Proof and Mint State versions.

TYPE: Early 19th century Type issues are loudly putting their 2 bits in as the tough to find properly graded Large Capped Bust Quarters are racing to $7K in MS64. Small Capped brothers are being pursued in Very Choice and Gem at $6,300 & $13,500 respectively. These coveted early Silvers are now each registering all time high Bids since late 1990. Even at the elevated levels, these coins are still perceived as bargains as only 98 examples of the Small Capped variety adorn the combine PCGS/NGC roster in MS65.

GOLD: Unexpectedly, Gold Type seemed to improve with each passing day of the recently concluded Long Beach Expo. As the Golden escalator moves up a few floors we observe the usual bullion oriented going up for a ride. Generic MS65 Saints are on the receiving end of a solid push as a $1,220 Bid scans for multiple unspotted offerings. A few others are taking it a bit further as $2½ Libs get a 10% boost in MS60 and the $3 Princess attempts to rebound in Choice.

The weekly COIN DEALER newsletter (the Greysheet) reports the national Dealer-to-Dealer wholesale coin market, monitoring all possible transactions and offers to buy and sell coins sight-seen. The coins may be certified or "raw" (uncertified), but the grading MUST ADHERE to the current leading standard. Prices reported derive from the highest legitimate Bids and lowest legitimate Asks seen nationally; they do not necessarily reflect the levels at which any particular dealer might offer to buy or sell that coin. Bids reported consider activity in the certified sight-unseen market, which already include consideration of certification costs. Bids for a sight-seen "raw" coin may be higher or lower than for a sight-unseen certified coin due to current market conditions. The CDN may not change Bid due to the bidding adjustments of the high bidder, but will be strongly influenced by Buys which are higher or Sells which are lower than current Bid/Ask levels. INVESTOR/COLLECTOR NOTE: The prices in this newsletter are from Dealer-to-Dealer transactions; you should expect to pay a premium above Ask when purchasing coins in a retail transaction; you may also commission a Dealer for your purchases.

The Bid prices listed within represent what individual dealers are willing to pay for coins that meet their particular grading criteria. Coins graded by other dealers or grading services, such as PCGS, NCI, ANACS, NGC, and any other services may not conform to the grading standards as interpreted by the dealer or dealers whose bid is represented within. Therefore a specific coin could be worth more or less than the listed Bid price. For listed Bid prices of coins certified by ANACS, NCI, PCGS, and NGC please refer to the Certified Coin Dealer newsletter

COLLECTOR DEMAND REMAINS STRONG

MIDAMERICA COIN EXPO UP NEXT

The Market in Depth

Dealers continue to be optimistic about the market's future as they head to the collector rich Chicago area to attend the MidAmerica Coin Expo in Rosemont, Illinois June 21-24. Stack's will host the Dr. Tory Prestera collection auction June 20-21 that will be held in conjunction with MidAmerica show. From here the rugged June schedule continues east as dealers make their way to Maryland to attend the Baltimore Coin and Currency Convention June 29-July 1. Another auction, this time by Bowers and Merena, is scheduled for June 28 in Baltimore. Strong activity has been the rule lately and dealers will need to keep their cash-flow positions intact if they hope to take advantage of June's opportunities. Some dealers are trying to keep a sound cash-flow position by unloading some Gold Type coins. They are using the bullion-plus days to sell numismatic Gold at attractive levels, in some cases at melt. Most denominations are being offered, with some available in quantity as Gold's volatility allows them. Recently the yellow metal has come under pressure from European Central Bank sales. Still, many analysts believe that the secular bull market for the precious metals remains intact.

Most dealers are still looking to buy a wide range of material for their clients with the number one criteria being that the coins must be at least average or above average for the grade. This is important because their customers are becoming increasingly educated in numismatics and in turn more picky in regards to the quality they will buy. Strong demand is focused on coins that are problem-free and possess nice eye appeal. Strike and originality are also extremely important as today's buyers look to add some nice specimens to their collections. Early coinage that was minted in the years prior to 1840 remains in serious demand. Active buyers are looking for most dates and denominations as they know that these rarities command serious attention no matter what market conditions exist. Bids have been steadily increasing for Flowing Hair and Bust coinage and expect this trend to continue. Dealers still believe that many of these coins represent an excellent value at current levels with plenty of room left. However the supply is quickly drying up and the pickings are slim at the moment. For now, dealers hope to have some success at public auction and on the bourse at the MidAmerica Coin Expo in Rosemont next week.

This Week's Market

CENTS THRU HALVES: Lincolns remain fresh with escalating Bids as perhaps the still underrated 1952-S triggers a solid advance to $275. Jefferson Nickels feature a $100 push chasing after rolls of the semi key 1939-S. 2004 Kennedy Half Dollars are again higher, while being actively pursued by multiple dealers.

MERCURY DIMES: Although active buyers remain at or near Bid for most of this popular series, there really hasn't been any excitement brewing here. Regardless, the staunch allies of this ensemble continue to keep this group stocked with an abundance of followers as the 1935-D in Choice and 1936-S in Choice thru Gem move to higher ground.

WALKING LIBERTY HALVES: This report chronicles the key of the extended short-set as the always desirable 1938-D tops a solid $1,330 in MS65. The true short-set shores up the action as Philadelphia entries from 1941 and 1945 escalate in Gem.

DOLLARS: A quartet of scarce and rare San Francisco offerings command buyers' attention in the Morgan camp as the 1885, 1895, 1896 and 1904 from this popular branch Mint are on the move. DMPL's maintain star status too, as numerous Deep Mirrored marvels reflect ongoing demand by raising the action even further. Generic Gems however are observed pulling back a bit within both Morgan and Peace factions.

PROOF SETS AND MINT SETS: Proof Sets once again are awash with supporting action as the 1971 "No S" Nickel set takes a $100 advance to $1,450 Bid. Mint Sets counter with several early issues moving up the ladder as the inaugural 1947 rates an impressive $1,150 Bid.

COMMEMORATIVES: Enthusiastic newcomers and seasoned numismatists are usually drawn to this historic and low mintage corner. Classic Silver Commems find that the Oregon Trail series are blazing a path to higher levels in MS65 and MS66. Those participating include 1928, 1933-D, 1934-D and 1936-S. The always popular Civil War theme Gettysburg also inches up in Gem. Classic Gold Commems are still on watch, more than ready for buyers to return as a trio are spotted surrendering further ground.

TYPE: As dealers fan the flames higher in an attempt to secure some much needed material this segment delivers some early summer heat. Take a look as the popular Twenty Cent pieces are under fire as Gem examples Bid $4,200. The ultra tough Draped Bust Quarters are red hot as specimens in MS60 thru MS64 attract a veritable inferno of new demand as the latter streaks to $19K. The always desirable Capped Bust Halves round out the action as MS65's top $7,400. Proof Type reveals that Charles E Barber's Dime, Quarter and Half trio are each nudging higher in PR60.

GOLD: As the golden caravan continues to play musical chairs, a pattern could be beginning to develop. On a number of occasions as the bullion dependent capitulate, a handful of better Gold Type advances in Gem. Three-Dollar Princesses appear to be on the comeback trail as a triple Bid jump chases her in MS62-MS64.

The weekly COIN DEALER newsletter (the Greysheet) reports the national Dealer-to-Dealer wholesale coin market, monitoring all possible transactions and offers to buy and sell coins sight-seen. The coins may be certified or "raw" (uncertified), but the grading MUST ADHERE to the current leading standard. Prices reported derive from the highest legitimate Bids and lowest legitimate Asks seen nationally; they do not necessarily reflect the levels at which any particular dealer might offer to buy or sell that coin. Bids reported consider activity in the certified sight-unseen market, which already include consideration of certification costs. Bids for a sight-seen "raw" coin may be higher or lower than for a sight-unseen certified coin due to current market conditions. The CDN may not change Bid due to the bidding adjustments of the high bidder, but will be strongly influenced by Buys which are higher or Sells which are lower than current Bid/Ask levels. INVESTOR/COLLECTOR NOTE: The prices in this newsletter are from Dealer-to-Dealer transactions; you should expect to pay a premium above Ask when purchasing coins in a retail transaction; you may also commission a Dealer for your purchases.

BU ROLLS

The following prices are for typical rolls of the dates involved. In the Lincoln series, spotted or otherwise inferior rolls are worth less than listed prices and 'gem' rolls often bring more. In the Jefferson series, some of the rolls in the late 50's tend to be dark—these bring lower prices; 'gem, full steps' rolls (when available) bring higher prices. In the Mercury series, 'gem, full bands' rolls are worth more than listed prices—particularly the pre-1941 issues. Washington rolls—dull or 'put together' bring lower prices. Gem full strike Walking Liberty rolls (particularly the 5-mint issues) are worth more than listed prices. M5-65 singles may be found in the MONTHLY SUPPLEMENT; Mercury & Walker singles are in the CDN.

When the Question is
SELLING
the Answer is
SPECTRUM!

The clients of Spectrum Numismatics had another record year in 2006. They continue to receive those Spectrum funds at an all-time record rate and you better not miss out. What do our clients tell us about why they come to Spectrum?

Our clients want to avoid making a major mistake. They don't want to get ripped off. They don't want to be intimidated. They don't want an embarrassing situation. In fact, many of them fear that their coins aren't good enough (or interesting enough) for a "big company" so they'll take the easy route and go to a local coin shop and dump them for 20 cents on the dollar.

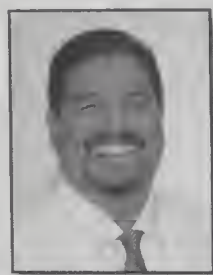

WHY SPECTRUM?

Our needs are so diverse and our buying interests are so extensive that we've purchased single coins for under $1 and for over $2,000,000. Why are customers bringing us coins in record numbers? Because they know they're dealing with world-class rare coin experts with unlimited financial resources. Because they know they'll be treated fairly and courteously. Because they know we have other customers waiting for their coins in all ranges of the price spectrum. Because they know they'll always receive same-day payment. Collectors, investors, dealers, and financial institutions alike know the Spectrum secret, and now so do you. If you're interested in selling 1 coin or 1000 coins, why would you want to go anywhere else?

Dealing with Spectrum is always as fast, confidential and convenient as you need it to be. We can travel to see you, meet you at our offices, at a location of your choice, or make an appointment with you for the next coin show in your area. We can also do the entire transaction by mail as we do thousands of times each year.

Spectrum has a commitment to customer satisfaction that is unsurpassed in the rare coin industry. Let us help you realize the most money for your coins. Give us an opportunity to serve you.
